READING GROUP TO DISCUSS THE INVENTION OF WINGS

The Reading Group presents a real treat for its June meeting — Sue Monk Kidd's The Invention of Wings, a fictionalized history of the Grimké sisters, Sarah and Angelina (Nina), who were at the forefront of the abolitionist and women's rights movements, wound around the intriguing narrative of a young slave, Hetty, who was given to Sarah as an 11th birthday present. Sarah despises slavery, even at that early age, and out of principle attempts to reject the gift. Kidd has given us a believable and elegantly rendered fictional first person account of Sarah's life. She maintains a spirited independence in her internal life. She survives cruelty and servitude by creating rituals and touchstones that she imbues with meaning and power. She both benefits and is injured by her complicated relationship with Sarah, who can neither free her nor protect her when she truly needs it. And yet, for many years, it almost seems as if Hetty is more psychologically free than Sarah, despite the external reality of being a slave.
Join the group of Thursday, June 25 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor for lively discussion and warm fellowship. Discounted copies of the book are available at Carmichael's; mention the CHBC Reading Group.

A contingent from CHBC will be walking in the LOUISVILLE PRIDE PARADE on June 19. More details to come soon. If interested in walking or if you have questions, contact Jason.
