Em(body)meant

Thirsting body cradled on nurse log Desiring body wrapped around flesh Weary body mired in mud Fragile body hidden in corners Fetus body drawn inward inward yearning reclamation reclamation reclaimed Fertile body flooded with ideas, fingertips creating a raging river

Body swaying, body shedding, Body sweating, body singing.

Moonlight caressing body open awake Lotus flower body calling for lover.

Dark cloud thunder lighting body closed to touch body Curious body, just enough body somebody everybody anybody body meant to be embodiment
