course outline

day one

Day One we look at MINDSET and start BASIC BRUSH SKILLS.

'1 AM' Exercise

We will look at what mindset you have been using until now as a Makeup Artist and explore powerful and practical new ways to improve your career through mindset. We do an exercise that some participants have called a 'game changer' in their career and is one you can continue to practice indefinitely.

Basic Brush Skills

The afternoon we look at the basics of body art.... No model required... we practice techniques on ourselves. This is the start of advanced brush skills as a MUA. I cover the very basics of body art to empower you with the practical exercises of MUA Bootcamp and finish the day with some fundamental exercises.

These practical exercises are designed to train your eyes and hands for advanced makeup skills. Just like a coach would have their team do weights to build strength... these exercises using body art build your makeup artist strength. They are designed to improve accuracy, confidence, and attention to detail, creativity and speed... to name a few.

You do not need to want to be a body artist or even be interested in body art to benefit from this course the same way not everyone doing weights at a gym want to be a body builder.

day two

Day Two you will learn ADVANCED BRUSH SKILL exercises with my close coaching. You will also learn how to MAP A SUCCESSFUL PATH to your own career goals.

Career Milestones and Career Mapping

Start the day learning a technique for designing your own makeup career.

Career Milestones allows you to create the future career you want to aspire to.

Career Mapping gives you a clear plan on how to achieve this.

Advanced Brush Skills

I will take you through, step by step, some advanced brush skills and body art exercises.

I will demonstrate how to use self-made stencils for complex designs... just in case you think you can't draw.

We will discuss how to embrace your own creativity and leave with a new found desire and inspiration for creating future projects.

You will leave the course on day two with a whole new outlook on your career, a plan for how you will achieve your career dreams and with knowledge of what to do to improve in the areas of your makeup artistry you wish to work on.

Most artists leave also adding body art to their skill set... this is a great added bonus to the class.
