Richard Crystal Book Signing - A Reign Supreme

Saturday, November 9 at 2:00 p.m.

Meet Richard "Rip" Crystal, author, producer and jazz singer, as he talks about growing up in Long Beach and the importance the Library played in his upbringing as well as his new book, A Reign Supreme. Rip was born into a show business family. His father Jack, produced jazz concerts and managed the Commodore Music Shop in Manhattan. His mother, Helen, was an amateur actress and encouraged her three sons to perform in school plays. After moving to LA in 1975, his show business career took off with the creating of ABC's "Life's Most Embarrassing Moments". He also produced "The Planet's Funniest Animals" for the Animal Planet. Autographed copies of his book will be available through Friends of the Library.

Food In Art - Masterpieces from the Renaissance to the Present Wednesday, October 30 at 2:00 p.m.

Through the ages food has been used by artists in many ways. In this presentation, you will see how Chagall depicted food in his work; how Manet shocked the world and represented class distinctions. Witness celebrations as shown by Brueghel, and a brilliant still life by Frida Kahlo. You will have much food for thought while you learn about Expressionism and Pop Art. Presented by Evelyn Silver, Docent, NCMA.

Online Introductions: The New Blind Date

Saturday, November 2 at 2:00 p.m.

In the old days, single people often relied on friends and family to introduce them to potential partners. It was known as the "blind date." Today, the blind date is often replaced by online dating and what our friends and family often did for us in the past the computer now does.

Whether you have been online for years, in the "should-I-really-do-this?" phase, or somewhere in between, this seminar provides you with information, caveats, step-by-step instruction and encouragement. Join motivational speaker Constance Hallinan Lagan as she shares her information and personal insights with the audience.

The Jewish Wedding - A History of the Ketubah (Jewish Marriage Contract)

Wednesday, November 6 at 2:00 p.m.

This program will explain the art, history, tradition and soul of the Jewish wedding. The common elements of the ceremony will be presented utilizing actual ketubot. Our speaker, Joan Katz, will display the art work or ketubah artists and discuss the content and decoration (illumination) of each piece with its magnificent array of colors, designs and their religious significance. Actual ketubot from plain to highly decorative and from our grandparents' day to contemporary will be displayed.

Tai Chi Chuan with Elizabeth Connors Thursdays, Nov. 7, 14, 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Come and experience the ancient Chinese exercise of movements beautifully linked together in a series of rhythmic steps designed to promote good health and prevent illness. Tai Chi Chuan means "supreme ultimate method". This exalted title was bestowed upon this ancient Kung Fu system because of its unique ability to combine the external martial arts exercise with the internal healing energies practiced by the people of China for thousands of years. Please wear comfortable clothes and shoes which are flat and closed like sneakers. 4th degree Black Sash Liz, has been teaching Tai Chi Chuan for over 20 years.
