WAIVER OF LIABILITY & EMERGENCY AUTHORIZATION

I am participating in The Outreach Foundation mission trip on _____ (dates) of my own free will and understand that I should not participate unless I am physically and medically able. In consideration of The Outreach Foundation allowing me to participate, I assume full and complete responsibility for any injury, accident or illness that may occur while I am traveling to or from _____ (departure city) and during my travel to _____ (destinations).

I give any licensed, practicing physician or hospital full authority to provide emergency medical treatment for me in the event such treatment is needed or necessary and I am not able to make such a decision. I also hereby give my permission for a licensed, practicing physician to administer whatever medical treatment he/she may deem necessary for me in the event of any medical emergency affecting me.

I understand that any expenses that are incurred by me due to accident or illness are my responsibility and not the responsibility of The Outreach Foundation. I also am aware of and assume all risks associated with participating in this mission trip. I, for myself and my heirs and executors, hereby waive, release and forever discharge The Outreach Foundation, its trustees and staff, its agents, representatives, successors and assigns, and all other persons associated with the mission trip, for any and all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs and/or expenses that I may have against them arising out of or in any way connected with my participation in this mission trip. I understand that this waiver includes any claims, whether caused by negligence, the action or inaction of any of the above parties, or otherwise.

NOTES TO READ CAREFULLY BEFORE APPLYING TO TRAVEL

Passports & Visas Individuals participating in Outreach Foundation trips are often required to have a Visa for entry in any given country. Please note that The Outreach Foundation will need possession of your passport for visa processing, perhaps for as long as three weeks. If you are traveling abroad in close proximity to an Outreach Foundation trip, you may need to apply for a duplicate passport. Consult with Lisa Dill on this matter. Once visa processing is completed, individual travelers are responsible for checking their passport to ensure that the travel dates in their visa accurately reflect the travel dates of the trip.

Credit cards When credit cards are used to pay The Outreach Foundation for trip related expenses, a 5% surcharge will be added to defray the cost of related fees and expenses.

Personal side trips Individuals planning personal travel in conjunction with an Outreach trip are responsible for coordination and payment regarding all travel plans (airfare and ground itinerary) for the personal portion of the trip. In addition; any expenses, travel delays, or other unexpected occurrences that arise during a personal portion of a trip are not the responsibility of The Outreach Foundation.

Insurance Individuals participating in Outreach Foundation trips must have medical insurance that provides adequate coverage while they are traveling. Participants should review the provisions of their own policy and contact their insurer to determine whether or not they should obtain additional personal coverage for the duration of the trip. Uncovered expenses that are incurred by trip participants due to accident or illness – including medical costs, airline change fees, and medical evacuation – are the responsibility of the participant, not The Outreach Foundation. The Outreach Foundation does not provide trip cancellation or other travel insurance coverage.

Inoculations and Medications Outreach Foundation trips often venture into areas of the world posing special health risks. Trip participants should review the travel health advisories on the Centers for Disease Control and World Health Organization websites and should consult with their own physicians or an international travel clinic to make informed decisions about inoculations and medications. The Outreach Foundation does not offer medical advice but will make it clear when inoculations are required for entry into a country on the itinerary. Participants shall notify Outreach of medical conditions and prescriptions that they are taking to ensure the availability of that information in case of a medical emergency.

Deductibility The Outreach Foundation issues tax receipts for payments made by individuals for the cost of that individual's participation in one of our mission trips; however, in so doing The Outreach Foundation is not giving tax advice. Each individual should contact their personal tax advisor to evaluate their situation and determine deductibility of trip expenses. If side trips or add-ons are recreational in purpose, the cost of those portions are clearly NOT tax deductible, and participants should pay those costs directly to the travel agent. The IRS is very clear that one individual may not pay the cost of another individual's travel, whatever the purpose, and deduct that amount on their income tax return. If someone wants to help with your travel expenses, they should give those funds directly to you.
