WORD

Exodus 33: 12-23 Psalm 99

Moses successfully interceded with God to accompany Israel to the holy land after their sin with the golden calf. In response to a request to display his glory, God recites a sentence that appears frequently in the Old Testament: "I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious." Moses is not allowed to see God's face, but only God's back.

1 Thessalonians 1: 1-10

Most likely this letter is the first written by St. Paul. He is giving pastoral encouragement and reassurances to new Christians living in an antagonistic pagan environment. Their commitment of faith, love, and hope makes them a model for other new Christian communities.

Gospel Acclamation (Alleluia) -stand p. 102

The Gospel of Matthew 22: 15-22

After Jesus begins teaching in the temple, religious leaders try to trap him with questions. First they ask if God's people should pay taxes to an earthly tyrant like Caesar.

WELCOME TO THE TABLE OF THE LORD

Not our table, but the Lord's Table!

Lutheran hospitality (in the ELCIC) welcomes all baptised Christians who commune in their own churches, to come to the table and receive communion. According to the Lutheran Confessions, we believe Christ to be truly present "in, under, and with the bread and the wine."
