720 13th Ave S Minneapolis, MN 55415 - 612.217.2661 - office@cominneapolis.org

Dear Parent,

Your son or daughter has confirmed participation in the Summer Training Project (STP) sponsored by Campus Outreach Minneapolis. This packet of information will help you understand the structure, goals, and environment of this mission project in Garden City Beach, South Carolina. For more information, you can visit <http://stp.cominneapolis.org/blog/parents>.

As the Director of the STP, I feel a great responsibility to you and respect your authority in relationship to your son or daughter. Therefore I want to make myself available to answer any questions you might have about the project or about Campus Outreach.

This is the fourteenth year STP's have been in the Myrtle Beach area, and the twenty-ninth year of summer projects sponsored by Campus Outreach. The picture in this packet is from our 2011 Summer Project.

I believe that an experience like the Summer Training Project can be a positive one in your son's or daughter's life for many reasons. Not only will they grow spiritually, but also in many other ways. The Project is designed to build responsibility and dependability into the lives of the students. The entire summer works together to use project responsibilities, their job, and involvement with the local churches to better equip them to be effective as college students, family members, and in their future careers.

Therefore, let me encourage you to discuss this information with your child and to hear from them why they are interested in the Training Project. We will not accept a student who does not have the consent of their parents. The enclosed consent form needs to be electronically signed, mailed to the office, or given to your son or daughter by May 4th. Please feel free to email me at elonergan@cominneapolis.org or call me at (262) 880-5360 to discuss the Training Project or any other questions you may have about Campus Outreach.

Sincerely,

Eric Lonergan
Project Director

What is Summer Training Project?

Summer Training Project (STP) is living, playing, working, and learning with other college students for nine weeks in Garden City, SC. Each student works a full time job during the day and participates in evangelistic outreaches, Bible studies, discipleship groups, ministry training, and other activities throughout the week. This challenging schedule creates an environment for students to grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ as well as develop ministry skills and leadership qualities.

Students from Bethel University, Northwestern College, the University of Sioux Falls, and other various colleges in the Twin Cities area attend STP.

This year's project will take place from June 1st to August 4th (add one day on either end for travel). The cost of this year's project will be $1750 ($1950 if transportation is needed). This price includes rent, several meals per week, social events, and other costs for the project. Wages earned from working can more than pay for the cost of the project.

All the students will be staying in one hotel (Garden City Inn). To maximize fellowship and learning opportunities, as well as for security, no one other than project participants and guests of the hotel owner will be permitted in the hotel.

FAQs

Q: Will my child be able to pay for project and have money left over for school?

A: Yes, the money a student can earn while working on the STP can cover the costs of the project while leaving some leftover to help towards the upcoming school year. We strongly recommend that students raise tax-deductible donations towards the cost of the project, enabling them to save more for the Fall term.

Q: Will my child need to find a job before arriving at STP?

A: No, it is not required to have a job before arriving at the STP. Prior to the summer, staff secure jobs for all students on the project. Nevertheless, students are ultimately responsible for securing those jobs once they arrive at the Project. Job searching is a group activity that we prioritize immediately when we arrive in Myrtle Beach. Most students find a job within the first few days.

Q: Why does my child work while at STP?

A: Summer Training Project incorporates a job into its design because of the invaluable learning experience that teaches students responsibility, dependability, and exposes them to the real world through a job.

Q: What is support raising?

A: Support raising is asking individuals, families, and churches to sponsor a student during the summer to help pay for the expenses of the project. Raising support can be a great way to cover the costs of the project as well as a great way to let others participate in your child's summer experience of growing in their walk with the Lord
