

Trinity Church, Saint Bruno – South Shore Deanery

Address: 150 de Cherbourg, St. Bruno QC J3V 2K8

Location Type: Community

Location Comments: St. Bruno is a full service community with supermarkets, specialty retail and services. There are English and French elementary and secondary schools.

FACILITY EXTERIOR (Curb Appeal):

The Anglican church is leasing space from the Roman Catholic congregation of St. Augustine's. The architect was Victor Prus a well know Montreal Architect – the building has architectural significance and, therefore, cannot be changed significantly.

Building: The wooden exterior has an austere appearance.

Doors: The church doors are glass - entranceway is not particularly welcoming.

Gardens: Minimal

Walkways: Good condition

Parking: Street

Lighting: Functional and safety

Overall Appearance: The church facility is tired - does not have good curb appeal.

Cemetery: No

FACILITY INTERIOR:

Worship Space:

Walls: Fine

Flooring: Good

Use of Space: The space is large for this small congregation but it is working for them.

Ancillary Space: (Parish Hall)

Walls: Wooden paneling – some areas look outdated.

Flooring: Fair condition

Offices: Yes - fair

Washrooms: Yes - fair

Wheelchair access: Yes.

Use of space: The space works well for them. They get along well with St. Augustine and the relationship is compatible.

SIGNAGE:

Directional: No

Location: Yes, parallel to the road - small cannot be read - Trinity is not on the sign. They are planning a new sign for both churches.

Special Event Signage: None

Interior Signage: N/A

PAST FIVE YEAR UPGRADES:

N/A

PLANNED FUTURE UPGRADES:

N/A

