WIZARD OF THE MONTH TYLER

This Portal Wizard does security at TARG & under his watchful eye everyone's safety is ensured while the goods times are in progress. He's been in a bunch of punk bands over the years but has mellowed out a bit lately & plays bass & mandolin in the folk/roots bands Toska & Whiskey Fields. He also runs the open stage nite at The Tea Party Cafe on Friday evenings. Tyler is an unashamed Trekkie & has the tattoo to prove it.

FUTURE CLASSIC ALBUMS REVIEWED BY A MILLENNIAL by 15 year old Felix

WELL TARGIANS, EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE YOU STUMBLE UPON A BAND WHO ARE REVERED BY ALL WHO HAVE HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPERIENCE THEIR MUSIC. METALIAN IS A BAND WHO CONTINUES TO AMAZE ALL WHO WITNESS THEM & WITHIN A 45 MINUTE PERFORMANCE CAN MAKE YOU QUESTION YOUR ALLEGIANCES TO THE ELDER GODS OF METAL WHO LAID THE GENRE'S FOUNDATIONS.

Ever since their first demo in 2005, they have been carving out their legend in the Canadian wastelands, and have amassed a cult of die-hard fans who will insist that they are the best Canadian metal band to exist.

The first track on their recent EP METAL FIRE & ICE, appropriately titled INTROMENTAL, centres around a slightly sped up Sad Wings of Destiny-esque descending riff. Once the title track invades your speakers, the album becomes the purest definition of amazing speed metal, and only rarely slows down. METALIAN stays vicious even when slowed down, such as on THE TRAVELLER, which features a riff which can only be described as sonic bliss. Throughout every song present here, there are constant blazing solos, which are all absolutely astounding.

While METALIAN draws a massive amount of influence from British metal bands such as SAXON, IRON MAIDEN, and most noticeably JUDAS PRIEST, they have a distinct sound and do not directly follow in the footsteps of any one band too closely. Vocalist IAN WILSON helps considerably with this, as his vocal approach is varied and unique. Additionally, he does not rely solely on screams or lower melodic vocals too much, and has a good mix of the two.

With this new EP, METALIAN have cemented their status as one of the best metal bands in Canada, and for any who are not familiar with their music have presented an example of the pure, unfiltered heavy metal that they craft.

It seems that they have answered our prayers as they are returning to TARG this month on SAT MAY 23, and I suggest that any self-respecting metalhead check em out.

DEAR SLO': WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT SNOW TIRES? I THINK THEY'RE FAKE. IT'S JUST DETROIT TRYING TO RIP ME OFF, RIGHT?

- Signed, Suspicious

Hey Suspicious: Snow tires are definitely NOT fake... how ever, they're not the answer for all situations. Take me for example - I drive my '98 Ford Fiesta all year 'round (whenever I can get it jump started from my Mom's driveway, that is!). Winter, spring, summer, fall... I cruise my sweet ride down Carling in all kinds of weather. So here's what I do: I've got snow tires on the rear end, a single 'all weather' on one side of the front, and one 'summer' tire on the other side. It shakes a bit when we hit about 60km/hr but Fiesta and I are ready for anything mother nature can throw at us! Vrooom, vrooom... click, click click... hey man ya got a boost?

HI SLO': I LIKED THE WEIRD/OBSESSIVE FOOD RULES THAT YOU RECOMMENDED IN LAST MONTH'S COLUMN. GOT ANY MORE?

- Signed, FoodRULES!

Dear FoodRULES!: Hey FoodRULES! As a matter of fact I do... Here's some more:

1. I don't eat anything that is pickled, in brine, or has 'dill' flavouring.
2. I don't consume ketchup, mustard, or relish (see above!). The only condiments I allow are mayonnaise and BBQ sauce.
3. I store EVERYTHING in the fridge - cans of soup, the sugar and salt, boxes of cereal, bags of Fritos... you name it! If there's room, it goes in the fridge.

HELP ME TOM: I HAVE SPENT 100'S OF DOLLARS ON SELF HELP BOOKS. NOTHING SEEMS TO WORK. - Signed, Lou Zer

OK Lou: Losers can't be choosers so being prepared for life's curve-balls is the best way to soften the blow. A rube like you needs a book that details the full spectrum of your inevitable & pathetic future challenges - that book is called The Ziggy Anthology. Learn to laugh at your problems... 'cause everyone else finds them entertaining. See ya in the funny papers!

TOUR/PLAY/EAT/REPEAT. an interview with PUP

It was fitting that Toronto's high energy punkers PUP was the first band to set foot on the House of TARG stage back in April 2014. Their "dream big & reckless" ethos, relentless never give up spirit & penchant for fun are all qualities that make the TARG heart swell. In 2013 they all decided to quit their jobs, put out a record and play over 250 shows. Somewhere along the way they garnered attention from Rolling Stone, Noisey, the Junos and tons of folks looking for relatable angsty tunes and good times in the pit. Oh and they also managed to seek out pinball hot spots on their globe trotting path to "buzz-bandom".

HOLY CRAP YOU GUYS HAVE BEEN BUSY LATELY - WHAT'S NEXT?

Opening night at the House of TARG last year was definitely a highlight. Since then we've toured all over Canada, the US, the UK, Europe and Australia. This summer we'll be doing the Vans Warped Tour, which I think is some sort of travelling circus. On top of that we've been writing our new record like crazy. Tours tours tours / songs songs songs! We're so excited we might poop our pants. If we could afford to buy new ones, that is.

WHAT'S THE ARCADE SCENE LIKE ON THE ROAD?

Philly was great cause we played at a venue called Golden Tea House - which was an awesome punk/house venue named for the golf video game Golden Tee (of which there was a broken down machine in the corner of the room we played in). But Boise was great cause we played at a venue called The Shredder. It was designed after the dicey, gangstery bar that appears in the movie Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles 2, and it's walls were LINED with video games and awesome pinball. The crowds were wild, and many games were had after our set. Plus, at the end of the tour we had a great show in Asbury Park at the Asbury Lanes (bowling alley / venue) and between load in and soundcheck we got to check out the Pinball Museum. It was amazing. So many vintage games.

WHO'S THE PINBALL WIZARD IN YOUR BAND?

Nestor is studying to be a wizard, for sure. But Steve is getting his skills up due to his competitive nature. On the last couple of tours we had the opportunity to play some great pinball tables: The Rolling Stones game in St Louis, Revenge From Mars in Minneapolis, the Simpsons game in Albuquerque. And the pinball museum - forget about it. Wall to wall with insane, historic and amazing pinball. The states is nuts (and rightly so) about pinball. Lotsa tables in Germany and Australia too. Unfortunately its not so hot in the UK. The only table I found in the UK was this Elvis game in a small record shop in Glasgow. It's weird that pinball is not big in there, but it definitely explains why its so gloomy.

YOU GUYS LOOK LIKE YOU ARE PRETTY WELL FED - TELL US ABOUT THE FOOD ON THE ROAD.

We're well fed because eating on the road is easy if you like eating crap. Most times we'll eat post-show as opposed to pre-show. But we like to switch it up and eat all sorts of things from the Taco-Bell menu. Sometimes we treat ourselves to nice meals though. We had the most amazing BBQ beef brisket in ST Louis. The best meal was probably in NYC at a 24hr perogie restaurant called Veselka. Freaking delicious.

TARG DREAM #1 IS TO HAVE RUSH PLAY HERE. HAVE YOU GUYS RUN INTO RUSH ANYWHERE? CAN YOU HELP?

It's important to dream BIG. We've never run into Rush unfortunately. But I've heard that Alex Lifeson owns a bar on College St in Toronto. We can stalk him if you guys want.

MOST BANDS TOUR IN A VAN OR BUS BUT TARG HAS A SUBMARINER PROGRAM. IS PUP INTERESTED IN A SUBMARINE TOUR?

I always thought that we would be more of a helicopter band, but what they can do with submarines these days is amazing. And ultimately, it would make two of our dreams come true - touring in a submarine, and playing a show in the lost city of Atlantis. So, naturally, when we heard about the program, we were sold.

HOW TO DRAW A WRESTLER WITH IAN JEANS

IAN JEANS IS AN OTTAWA NUT BAR ANIMATOR/PAINTER WHO HAS DONE A TON TV SHOWS LIKE BEAVIS AND BUTTHEAD, MISSION HILL, ED, EDD AND EDDY... THE LIST GOES ON. HE HAS BEEN AT THE ANIMATION GAME FOR SO LONG WE WOULDN'T BE SURPRISED IF HE WORKED ON SNOW WHITE OR EVEN STEAMBOAT MICKEY. HE RIPS WITH A PENCIL BUT HIS REAL PASSION IS WRESTLING SO HE AGREED TO TEACH US HOW TO DRAW A GRAPPLER SO WE CAN DEFACE OUR MATH TEXT BOOKS.

DUSTER SLIPPERS FOR CATS

Cats have a lot of time on their paws, so why not put them to good use. Thanks to some smart inventors your furry buddy can now help out with the chores & hate you even more.

EYE DROP FUNNEL GLASSES

Sure, eye drops are always a pain and this product attempts to solve that problem... but hopefully these specs also come with “buyer’s remorse ointment”.

NO CAN DO?

Finally a product that is easy to understand. The ingredients label simply reads “Chicken & broth”. Thanks but no thanks Blue Star.

FOR HYDRO FANS ONLY

Ever wonder what’s inside that giant apple on the 401 towards Toronto? Well let’s just say they specialize in embroidered hydro accident scene t-shirts. Now you know.

BET ON PHONY PONIES

This slab of wax features recordings of an announcer calling horse races with 8 different & random outcomes. I’ll bet this game never gets old.

WHAT A RACKET

Nope this racket wasn’t left in the sun or brutally abused... it came that way. In the 80’s some crackpot made simple things more challenging by adding “ergonomic” curves to hammers, goalie sticks and tennis rackets. I’m sure the inventor AND my tennis opponent had the last laugh.

TARG YEAR II: ELECTRIC BOOGALOO

It's been a great year at the TARG for us behind the scene wizards. Both Geoff at Pinhead Amusements and myself have scrambled after hours to keep the games working as well as bring in new games to shake thing up. Year one saw a pretty unprecedented line up of both pins and vids, and I don't think we are going to slow down any time soon. It is getting harder though.... What do we take out? These are the things that keep me up at night.

LONDON CALLING

We also seem to have turned a few heads throughout the bar scene, as Canadian live music institution Call the Office in London has recently added some pins to their operation with the help of longtime pinball enthusiast Speedy Mike from Speed City Records. I've heard a few logistics phone calls to TARG also may have played a hand in this amazing turn of events.

FIGHT THE POWER MONTREAL

Our friends in Montreal are now lobbying to have some gaming bylaws from the arcade dark ages reversed to allow an amazing underground pinball lounge go public. I went to the very hush hush opening night of said establishment a few years back and it was amazing! Hopefully everything works out for them, they have a great set up and have been a big part in the success in the Ottawa Pinball Show since day one. Check them out and give some support at www.northstarcoin.com Once these archaic anti-arcade atrocities (how's that for alliteration?) are dealt with, you will find me at the Capersville machine with a whiskey sour in hand whenever I'm in MTL.

SPACE IS THE PLACE

Finally, we get to new and exciting things for Ottawa

Pinball. Since the opening of House of TARG the demand for repairs and new acquisitions required much more space to work on and store machines. I'm happy to say I've moved out of dimly lit storage lockers and into an amazing new shop! Things on my end will run much more efficiently. I've also found a new location for the 5th anniversary Ottawa Pinball & Gameroom Show. This year we will be holding our festivities at Maker Space North located at City Center. This space is much more accessible to everyone and if you haven't been there I strongly suggest you go. Kyle from Maker Space is a rad dude, and will gladly give you a tour of one of Ottawa's coolest new places. Be sure to check it out at makerspacenorth.com. I'm really excited about this new venue and will be keeping you posted on the event in the weeks to come.

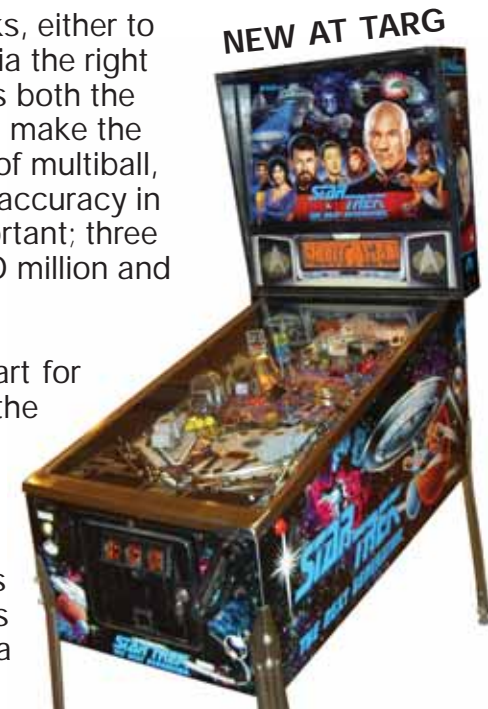

Well, that's enough run on sentences for this month. Next month I will get back to featuring the new games in the line up and their history.

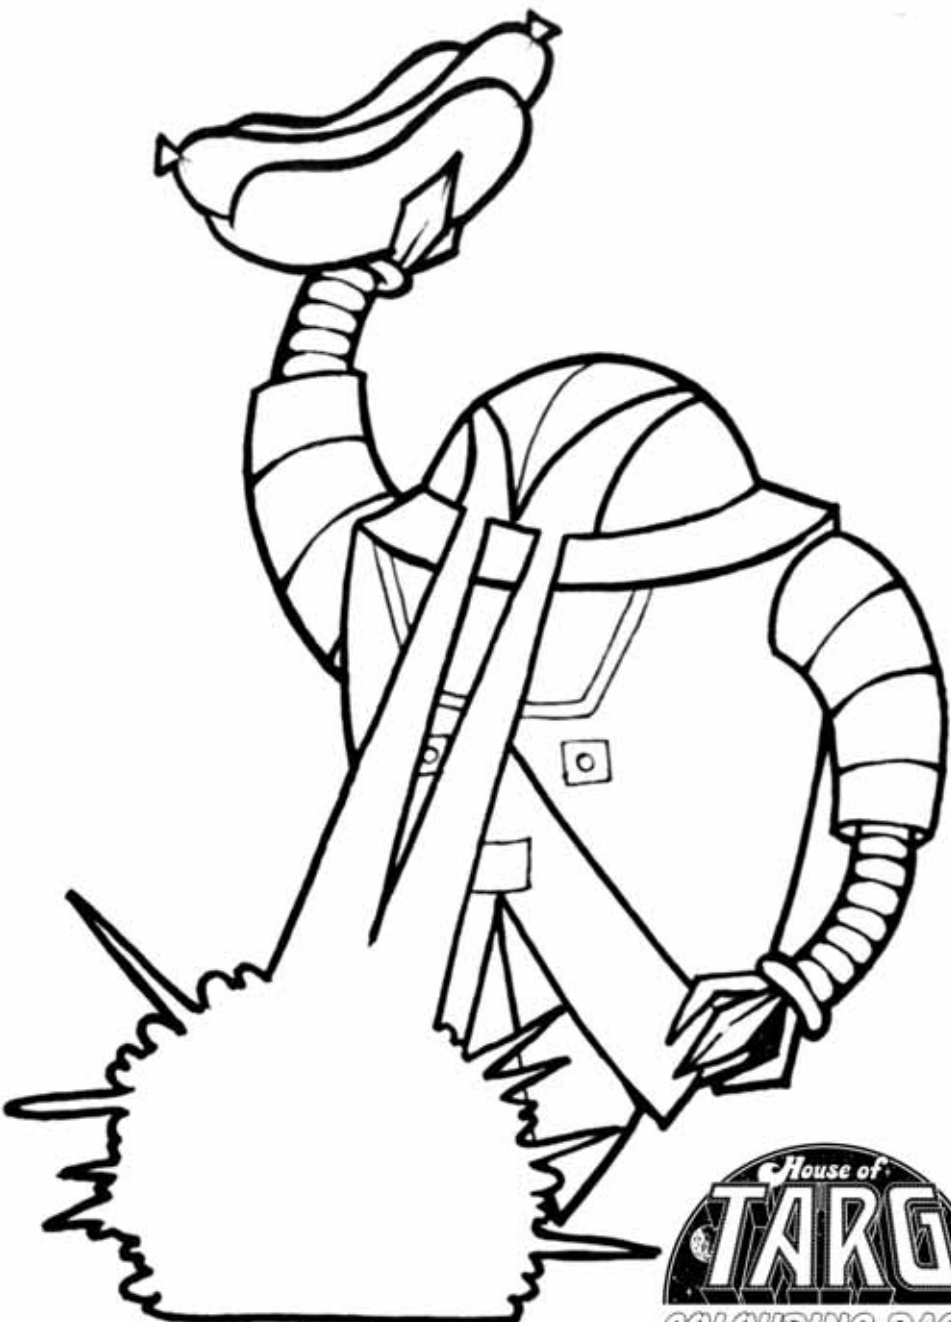

Thanks for a great year! - JM

STTNG: MULTI-BALL TIPS

Start multiball by making three locks, either to the Borg Ship via the left ramp or via the right orbit. A shot to the right orbit lights both the ramp and orbit locks, but you must make the third lock via the orbit. At the start of multiball, the left Probe gun is loaded. Here, accuracy in shooting Mission Start is very important; three successful shots score at least 260 million and add 30M to the base jackpot.

During multiball, shoot Mission Start for 1x, 2x, 3x Jackpots, and shoot the Left Ramp for 3x Jackpots. After a left ramp shot, the ball is shot back at you from the Borg Ship. It may be easier to loop Mission Start. Unless you get those Probe shots at the start of multiball, the jackpots won't be worth nearly enough for a good score.

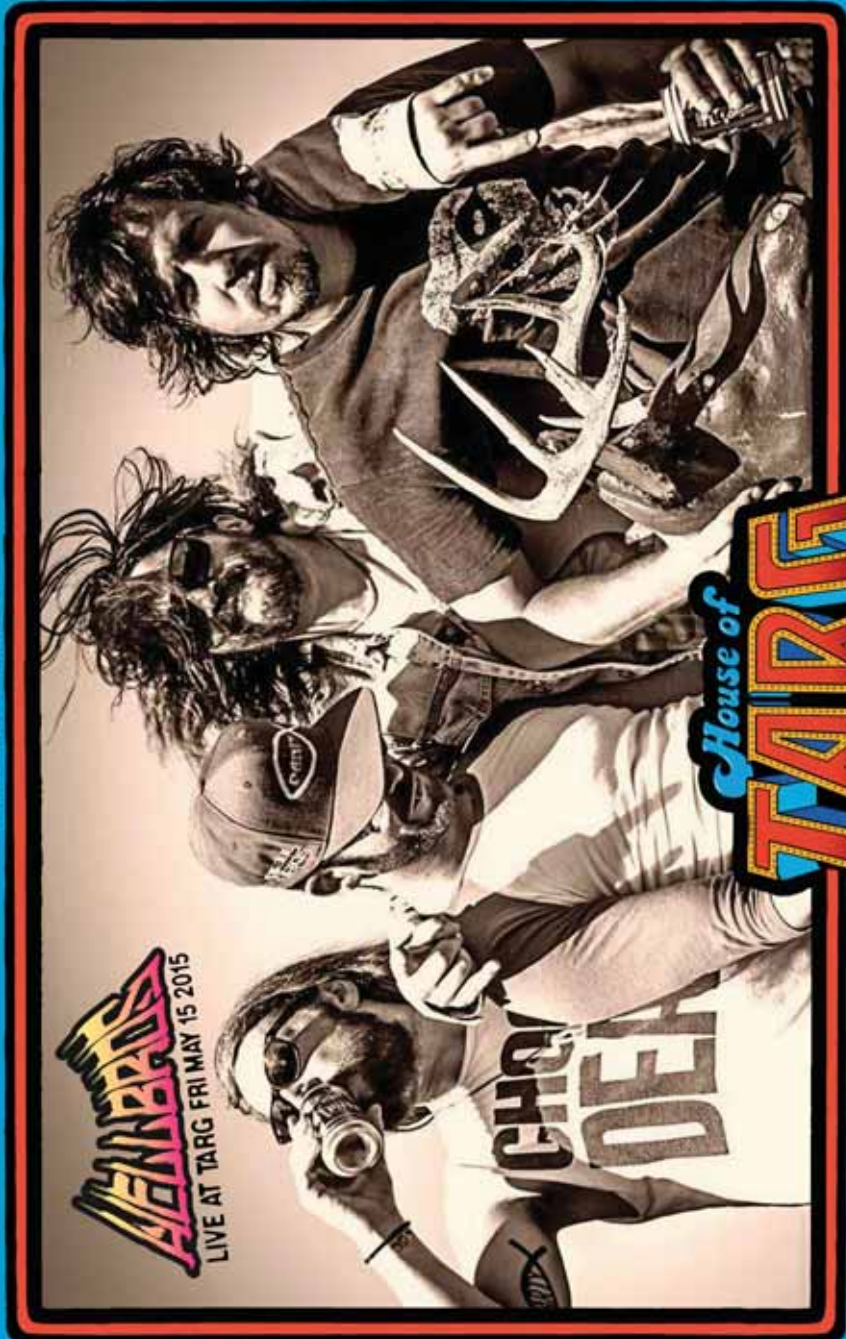

ASK A WIZARD FOR CRAYONS. GET CREATIVE, HAND IT IN TO GET POSTED ON THE TARG FRIDGE.
