

Tivoli Fest 2015

Saturday & Sunday, May 23 & 24

Elk Horn, Iowa

The 2015 Tivoli Fest Royalty

The King and Queen for Tivoli Fest 2015 are Doug and Wanda Smith, both lifelong supporters of Elk Horn. The King and Queen were elected by the community and crowned at the annual Better Elk Horn Club spring banquet on April 20, 2015.

Both have served and supported the community and neighbors for many years.

Representing Tivoli Fest as the 2015 Prince and Princess this year are Prince Brayden Burnison (Teresa and Travis Burnison), and Princess Shelbi Partridge (Sheila and Travis Partridge), age 7, both of Elk Horn. They were crowned at the Museum of Danish America on April 9.

PARADE NOTE:
Going the opposite direction this year!

PARADE SATURDAY
Beginning at 11 am

FREE Family Fun!

Sat.,
May 23
8 pm

Danish Windmill Stage
Come have a "blast" before the fireworks as the Danes re-make the popular game show! Don't miss the face-off between locals & alumni.

Savor authentic Danish cuisine

There's nothing like an open-faced sandwich. Stroll down to the ELK HORN TOWN HALL on Saturday where you'll find true Danish open-faced sandwiches or smørrebrød (buttered bread). These sandwiches are works of art on a slice of bread. The Danes use a knife and fork to eat them. Open-faced sandwiches consist of a single slice of bread (usually rye bread) topped with fine meat or cheese. Open-faced sandwiches prepared for Tivoli Fest are Reje Salat (Shrimp Salad), Rullepølse (Beef with spices), Lakse Salat (Salmon Salad), Marineret Sild (Pickled Herring), Leverpostej (Liver Pate), Skinke (Ham), Bøf med Remoulade (Roast Beef), Flæskesteg (Roast Pork), Havarti Ost (Havarti Cheese), Æg og Ansjos (Egg with Anchovies) with all the trimmings. For dessert, enjoy a piece of Danish layer cake or æblekage (apple cake).

At the NEW ELK HORN FIRE STATION (both Saturday and Sunday), enjoy watching the cooks use special æbleskiver pans and knitting needles to make these unique, round Danish entree treats served with syrup, jelly or sugar. Also served is medisterpølse, a Danish seasoned sausage, to make a complete, hearty meal.

IOWA CRAFT BEER TENT
Friday 3-10 p.m.
Saturday (11 a.m.-Midnight) & Sunday (9 a.m.-2 p.m.) - experience Iowa, Danish and domestic beers.

NEW! Frikadeller Contest - Sunday at 12:30 p.m. Bring your Frikadeller in a crockpot (cocktail size) with the recipe.

OPTIMIST CLUB will be serving pork burgers before and after the parade.

ELK HORN'S RESTAURANTS and street vendors on Main Street will be open to serve you.

It's a fun-filled Danish American Festival . . .

Tivoli Fest Opening Ceremonies will be held at the Danish Windmill at 8 a.m. on Saturday, May 23. With the help of the local Color Guard, the Tivoli King and Queen will raise the Danish and American flags to the strains of the U.S. and Danish national anthems. Mayor Stan Jens, and the Tivoli chairperson Dustin Petersen, will conduct the ceremonies.

The Mill to Mermaid Fun Run/Walk will begin at 8:15 a.m. immediately following the opening ceremonies. The M & M run will end in Kimballton at the Little Mermaid fountain in the City Park with T-shirts given to the winners in each age division. Juice and M&Ms will be available for all participants. All ages are welcome. Registration is from 7:30-8 a.m., at the former Danish Inn Restaurant, and closes just prior to the run. The fee is $5 per person for ages 12 and older. For more information, please call Tom Cannon at (712) 764-5306.

The Mill Entertainment Stage beckons you to bring your lawn chair and enjoy folk dancing, songs, and music - all with a Danish flair. In case of rain, all events will be moved to the Elk Horn Fire Station. Listen to 1220 KJAN radio station.

The Tivoli Fest Fireworks Spectacular can be seen from the Windmill grounds. Fireworks have been a part of the Tivoli Gardens in Copenhagen, Denmark, for over 150 years. The only exception was during WWII. Elk Horn is excited to carry on this tradition with their annual fireworks extravaganza by the Waymire Brothers. The aerial display will begin on Saturday night after dark on the southeast side of the Tivoli Inn & Suites Motel. The public is invited to sit on the grass south of the motel or on the Windmill grounds. Major funding for the fireworks display is provided by local businesses and generous donations from the public. Mange Tak! Look for free-will donation canisters around town during Tivoli Fest if you would like to make a contribution.

The Danish Strøget (Walking Street) has that "perfect something" you're searching for! Stroll down the Danish Strøget with quaint shops and unique items. Stop in the shops and enjoy the charm and hospitality as the proprietors share their wares and heritage with you. Shop the open-air market on Saturday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., north of the former Danish Inn and behind the Egg Crate. Some will also be open Sunday in front of the Egg Crate. Locate the Tivoli Country Store and select a homemade goodie to take with you. Take a stroll up Main Street to visit other businesses and food vendors.

BRAD MYERS BAND FRIDAY, 7-10 PM ELK HORN FIRE STATION

The Brad Myers Band returns to Tivoli Fest for a Friday Evening Performance in 2015. The band calls Cedar Falls, Iowa, home but has multiple ties to the Elk Horn area. Brad and Blake Myers are nephews of Deb & James Bieker and grandsons to the late Warren & Gudrun Jacobsen.

LIVE BAND, "USUAL SUSPECTS", FEATURING ELK HORN NATIVE, DARLA HANSEN SATURDAY, 9 P.M.-MIDNIGHT ELK HORN FIRE STATION

"Usual Suspects" combines musical talent from the area. All of the members have been in bands for many years. Elk Horn resident Darla Hansen, and Dave Brammann, Bill Daeges, Doug Hammer and Chris Will from Harlan will be playing a variety of classic rock, country and pop for you to enjoy. Whether you are a dancer or a listener, there is something for everyone! 9 p.m. - Midnight, Saturday, May 23 at the Elk Horn Fire Station.

DANISH FOLK DANCING

The Danes in Kimballton have been dancing Danish Folk Dances for over 100 years. Folk Dances are traditional dances of a country which have evolved naturally from everyday activities of people. Folk Dancing began as a fun way to get together. It is in this spirit that the art of folk dancing was kept alive through the Immanuel Lutheran Church and then through the many celebrations in Kimballton, where Danish Folk Dancers performed. Today, the Danes are still dancing, but now at Tivoli Fest in Elk Horn. Today, the young people are asking to dance! We hope everyone involved will keep the spirit alive and have a great time dancing Danish Folk Dances. A big thanks to all who participate.

THE MUSEUM OF DANISH AMERICA RINGRIDNING!

Ringridning is a Danish tradition that has been adapted from adults riding horses to children riding decorated bikes. Last year's hit bicycle competition for ages 4-12 will be reprised this year on the lawn just east of the museum. Think you can spear a suspended ring while pedaling a bicycle? Test your skills on Tivoli Fest Saturday from 2:30-4:30 pm; Registration is at 1:30 pm. Bring your own bike (decorated, of course!) and a helmet. There are two age categories: 4-7 years and 8-12 years Prizes awarded. Extra bikes and helmets available. The event is free and fun for the entire family!

VIKINGS INVADE TIVOLI FEST!

Skjaldborg (Viking Living History) will be in Elk Horn, Iowa. This group shares a common love of educating and entertaining. Their greatest satisfaction in doing this is the wonder and thrill in the eyes of the kids that see them. Skjaldborg is less of a "reenactment" group, and more of a historical education group, who tries to shed some light on the Dark Ages

It is important to Skjaldborg that historical accuracy be followed whenever possible. They strive to present the facts about a greatly misunderstood people through their appearances. The Vikings do hope to be entertaining as well as educational. To do this, they show how the weapons and armor were used in the often-brutal world of the Vikings. Full speed, non-choreographed combat with real (just not sharp) authentic replica weapons of all kinds.

Few people know as much about the diverse Norsemen as they think. Along with their spoken demos and the steel combat, they also sport an accurate Viking camp complete with tents, cook pots and wares, furs, and other details.
