ABOUT ALISON VICTORIA

As the first female host of the popular Crashers series on DIY Network and HGTV, Alison Victoria surprises homeowners throughout the country with extravagant kitchen redesigns completed in 3 days on the show, Kitchen Crashers. Alison hunts in stores across America for weekend warriors who could definitely use some help bringing style, beauty and simplicity together to create harmony in their kitchens.

Alison Victoria, a Chicago native moved to Las Vegas in 1999 to attend the University of Nevada Las Vegas, where she graduated and embarked on her professional career as the youngest designer at Christopher Homes in Las Vegas and Park City, Utah. Her responsibilities included designing and creating stunning interiors for affluent, custom residences. In 2003 Alison launched her full service interior design firm Alison Victoria Interiors, with locations in Chicago and Las Vegas, where she brings design and personality together at boutiques, resorts and private residences across the country.

In 2007 she created her own line of modern luxury furniture, AVC, that defines sleek and sexy. Soon after, Silverton Casino Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada hired her as creative director where she oversaw its $160 million expansion. In 2011, Alison received the Rising Stars of Business award by the Las Vegas Business Press. With home bases in two cities, Alison is still actively involved in donating her time to community non-profit organizations such as the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Nevada SPCA), PAWS Chicago, Movember and Chicago Children's Charities.
