

YOU ARE THE LEADER YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR!

INVITATION

invitation

Are you the leader you want to be?

Are you creating an environment where people bring their best to work consistently (in the age of a global disengagement epidemic)?

Is your company on a path to thrive and contribute to a better future?

If you face challenges in these areas and you:

- recognise that old ways of management cannot deliver the creativity and engagement that it takes to thrive in these times,
 - are intrigued by new models of work (self-organised, freedom based, teal),
- then we have an invitation for you:

Join us for a three day to prepare yourself to bring your company into the new Millenium.

The purpose of this event is to bring together a fellowship of leaders who want to change the world of work, improve people's lives, bring freedom, creativity, passion and responsibility to their companies.

The workshop builds on two pillars:

- Mentoring and support (one on one mentoring by Jean Baptiste, group mentoring, peer support),
- Action: get started on the journey of transformation and have all it takes (next steps, a clear approach, resources, tools and support) to successfully accomplish it.

We invite to this workshop CEOs, shareholders and board members who are ready to lead a change towards a better world of work.

The time of the lone hero is over. Be part of the movement that is changing industries and the world.

Jean Baptiste Dernoncourt

Jean Baptiste is the CEO of Carrefour Romania, a large retail company of 17,000 people. His passions are learning, exploring, meditating and helping people grow. He embarked his company on a freedom and trust based journey 3 years ago. He perceived tremendous changes throughout his company: from culture to financial results, from way of working to customer satisfaction. Though the journey is far from over (shall it be once?), he is now eager to share his experience and support other leaders who want to walk this path.

Her passion is people and she has dedicated her career helping companies and organisations creating better results with genuine participation and collaboration.
