Indian Education: An Overview

Policy to Pedagogy

9th Annual Minnesota ASCD Spring Conference

Minnesota Department of Education

April 9, 2016

Featuring

Dr. Rev Hillstrom
and
Ramona Kitto Stately

Teaching staff, counselors, coaches, principals, district office personnel:

Join us to explore how American Indian education reflects best practice by expanding our understandings of diversity and equity; you will also gain personal perspective that will equip you as an educator to advocate for American Indian students.

The session will provide an overview of historical foundations surrounding American Indian education and the relationship and responsibilities between the US Government and American Indian people. In addition we will dispel the myth of data irrelevances as it pertains to the American Indian educational experience.

This day of learning is facilitated by Indian Education Program Coordinator Ramona Kitto Stately, and Director of Educational Equity Dr. Rev Hillstrom, both of Osseo Area Schools.

Learn more about our presenters at MinnesotaASCD.org and REGISTER to:

- Understand the historical foundations surrounding American Indian education
- Develop an understanding of Indigenous Identity
- Apply American Indian education best practice by expanding understandings of diversity and equity
- Gain personal perspective that will equip us to advocate with American Indians
- Dismiss the myth of data irrelevances as it pertains to the American Indian educational experience

April 9, 2016: 8 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Minnesota Department of Education
1500 Minnesota 36, Roseville, MN 55113

Registration Information

Minnesota ASCD members: $125, non-members: $139
Pre-registration required – Space is limited
Contact MinnesotaASCD@gmail.com with questions