BIOGRAPHY

Patrick Custado, better known as DJ Patrx was born in Daly City and raised in San Francisco, CA. Patrick started DJing at the age of 12 in 2002. During that time, he began spinning at private events throughout the Bay Area with his brothers. In 2003, Method Entertainment emerged and Patrick joined forces that would eventually put him on the map. Spinning from private, corporate, club events and now commercial radio, Patrx has been a staple in the bay area for numerous years. His night mixshow with Gabby Diaz is on KYLD WILD 94.9 in the Bay Area, California from 8pm-9pm is called "The Commercial Free Hit Mix." He also has a weekly mixshow with the hip hop magazine called "XXL" on Dash Radio and "The Saturday Night Street Party with Ray Styles" on The Wave 89.1FM in Manila, Philippines. Patrick is now involved in music production creating edits and remixes for the DJ community and beyond. DJ Patrx keeps the dance floor packed and is grateful to be doing what he loves the most.
