As you may have noticed, some measures are noted within certain sections of our song charts to indicate the timing of the chord changes. Here is a simple key to help you understand what’s happening:

- I = measure bars
- II: :II = “repeat this section” indefinitely, or as many times as noted in parenthesis
- / = quarter note
- // = eighth note
- /// = sixteenth note
- . = indicates the note is dotted (e.g. “//.” = dotted eighth note)

The chord, or note, will be marked, and however many beats it lasts will follow. This is only to indicate the timing of the changing of the chords, not to serve as a rhythm chart.

Here is the timing of the verse progression in “Lovesong”:

\begin{align*}
|: & \text{Bb} / / / / | \text{F} / / / / | \text{Gm} / / / / | \text{Eb} / / / :| \\
\end{align*}

The Bb chord has one measure of three quarter notes, and the F, Gm, and Eb chords each have one whole measure of four quarter notes. These four measures repeat throughout the entire verse, and for as long as is called for in other sections that return to this progression.

Here is the bass line from the channel in “On the Shores”:

The notes are found in parenthesis. In this case, the first measure has an E note for four quarter notes, the second measure has an A note for two quarter notes plus a D note for two quarter notes, and the final two measures have E for four quarter notes each. This progression of four measures is repeated as long as is called for in this section of the song.

Here is the bridge section from “Lovesong”:

\begin{align*}
|: & \text{Bb} / / / / | \text{Eb} / / / / | \text{Gm} / / / / | \text{Gm} . \text{Eb} . :| \\
\end{align*}

Here, the final measure has dotted quarter note values for the Gm and Eb chords.

Hopefully that is simple and informative enough to help you!

Set us free!
(verse 1)

It seems like all I can see are enemies surrounding me
It seems like all I can feel are lies that you’re not real
I lift my eyes to the hills, where does help come from
My help comes from the one who the made the earth and heavens

(channel 1)

I believe you’re more real than what my eyes can see
I believe these hills are full of a mighty angel army

(chorus 1)

God of the angel armies, you’re mighty to save
God of the angel armies, you’re worthy of our praise
God of the angel armies, you fight for us
God of the angel armies, you come down when praises go up

(verse 2)

Finally I’m starting to see, things are not as they seem
Nothing can come between you’re mighty love for me
No ear has ever heard, no eye has ever seen
What you have planed for those you set you’re love upon

(channel 2)

I believe you’re greater than I could ever dream
I believe you’re coming again with a mighty angel army

(chorus 2)

you come down... when praises they go up

C Am F
I fall on the floor down at your feet
I know you want me here with my suitcase full of needs
Oh my heart is heavy and my mind is full
I let go of my pride and empty out my soul

(chorus)

I let go, ohhhhhhh
C F
Empty my soul, ohhhhhhh

I pick up all my ashes and my tattered robes
I bury them in a sea of love undescribable
