Outdoor Catering

The elegant perfection which you would expect from our events does not need to be confined to The City Pavilion.

Pannas catering can bring our culinary expertise to any external occasion. Following the same meticulous process as our internal menu service, you can guarantee to delight your guests at any outside event. We can also supply a fully licensed bar and professional waiting staff to complete your celebration.

Cuisine

You can be rest assured that every celebration at The City Pavilion is treated as the distinctive occasion that it is. Your bespoke menu begins with a personal consultation with one of our executive chefs, whose team will source only the finest ingredients from our specialist suppliers. You will then be invited to a tasting and only when you are completely satisfied with every aspect, will your menu be finalised. All cuisines and dietary requirements can be catered for, to produce a culinary delight which is as individual as the occasion it compliments. We promise a multitude of flavours, colours and aromas to flatter the senses and amaze your guests.
