

HOMELAND

Sponsored by The Diocese of Endorsed Chaplains

HOMELAND

This motivating and educational event is uniquely designed to equip Chaplains, Pastors and persons who are compassionately focused on mending wounded souls. Leading experts, with over 30 years of combined experience, in Chaplaincy and Clinical Counseling will help you develop and customize your own solutions to specific issues and challenges in your own field of service. This conference will focus on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Anxiety Disorders, and Crisis Counseling to provide you with a comprehensive healing approach.

Psalm 147:3

He heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds

REVEREND NIGEL MUMFORD

Rev. Nigel Mumford has served for over six years in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Commandos. His conviction to pray for healing came in 1989 when his sister, Julie Sheldon, became very ill. In 2004, Fr. Nigel was called to direct the Healing Ministries of Christ the King Spiritual Life Center in the Episcopal Diocese of Albany, NY.

REVEREND DIEGO LONDONO

Lieutenant Londono, who is the United States Navy Command Chaplain at the Naval Consolidated Brig in Chesapeake, Virginia. As a Clinical Chaplain, in a joint military confinement facility he offers pastoral care for prisoners, staff members, and their families using inclusive, creative, and systemic theological and counseling perspectives. He also served with the 2D Medical Battalion and Combat Logistics Battalion 22. Deployed with 22D Marine Expeditionary Unit.

ARCHBISHOP DAVID SCOTT

Bishop David Scott has served as a chaplain to hospitals, nursing homes, and educational institutions for over 30 years. He established The Canonical Order of Chaplains (TCOC) in 2007 as a religious order whose focus is on community, education, and training.

REVEREND BENJAMIN McENIRE

Rev. McEntire conducts workshops, retreats, and seminars, training believers in healing prayer and spiritual dynamics and equipping them to actively live a Christian world view. Presently, Capt. McEntire is a priest in the CEEC and chaplain in the South Carolina Air National Guard.
