Re: Case No. 09-12-2259
University of California, Berkeley

Dear (b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

This is in response to your appeal dated October 4, 2013, to the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) regarding closure of the above-referenced complaint against the University of California, Berkeley.

After careful consideration, I find that the issues raised in your appeal do not warrant a change in OCR's disposition of your case under the laws and regulations enforced by OCR. Accordingly, your appeal is denied.

This concludes OCR's consideration of your appeal and is the final agency determination. Final agency determinations and regional office determinations are not formal statements of OCR policy and should not be relied upon, cited, or construed as such. OCR's formal policy statements are approved by a duly authorized OCR official and are made available to the public.

You have now exhausted all avenues of review within the U.S. Department of Education. You may have the right to file a private suit in federal court, regardless of OCR's determination.

Sincerely,

Arthur Zeidman
Director

Re: Case No. 09-09-2145
University of California, Santa Cruz

Dear

(b)(6),(b)(7)(C)

This is in response to your appeal received by the Office for Civil Rights on October 17, 2013 to the Director regarding the determination made in the above referenced case by OCR's regional office in San Francisco (OCR San Francisco).

After careful consideration, I find that the issues raised in your appeal do not warrant a change in OCR San Francisco's disposition of your case under the laws and regulations enforced by OCR. Accordingly, your appeal is denied.

This concludes OCR's consideration of your appeal and is the final agency determination. Final agency determinations and regional office determinations are not formal statements of OCR policy and should not be relied upon, cited, or construed as such. OCR's formal policy statements are approved by a duly authorized OCR official and are made available to the public.

You have now exhausted all avenues of review within the U.S. Department of Education. You may have the right to file a private suit in federal court whether or not OCR finds a violation.

Sincerely,

Arthur Zeidman
Director
