ONE
GRAND GALLERY

Portland, OR - July 15th, 2015 -

One Grand Gallery, a contemporary art and design gallery, is proud to present the effervescent animations of San Francisco based artist, Ferris Plock. Plock lives and works in the Bay area, often collaborating with his wife Kelly Tunstall, under the name KeFe. Throughout the month of August, we will be showing his work in a solo exhibition entitled Personal Pizza Party.

Plock's illustrations transcend categorization; his dedication to the craft is clear even in the most irreverent and spontaneous sketches. His past experience with woodblock, gold leaf, and acrylic mediums combined with a tinge of ukiyo-e aesthetic make for truly unique pieces. His imagination lends his creations a tangible humanity, as if he befriends each character that he draws. Often highly abstracted, they create an enticing narrative imbued with personality and humor.

In this case, One Grand will be hosting Plock's own army of pizza creations - from the googly-eyed, to the monster truck-driving, cannibalistic slices. They promise to confuse, entertain, and even make you a little hungry. Personal Pizza Party starts Friday the August 7th, 2015 at 7pm.

Artist Statement:

I have always loved pizza... I was born clutching pizza... I have always found good excuses to eat pizza my entire life. I have been drawing pizza for a long time now and it just feels like an exhibition dedicated to one of my favorite experiences (thinking about pizza) is long overdue. I know that many people have paid tribute to pizza over the years and I'm not the first person to create art work inspired by the love for pizza. However, I just felt like I couldn't hold back any longer and I feel good about the work so far.
