The year is 1996, and small-town life for 14-year-old Catherine is made up of punk rock, skaters, shoplifting, and the ghost of Kurt Cobain. Her parents are too busy divorcing to pay her headful of unspent angst much attention. But after she tries mess - a PCP variant - for the first time, her budding rebellion begins to spiral out of control.

The Sudden Appearance of Hope by Claire North- Redhook- 978-0-316-33599-7- HC- $32.50- Fiction- 432 pp.- May 2016

It started when I was sixteen years old. A slow declining, an isolation, one piece at a time. A father forgetting to drive me to school. A mother setting the table for three, not four. A teacher who forgets to chase my missing homework. A friend who looks at me and sees a stranger. No matter what I do, the words I say, the people I hurt, the crimes I commit - you will never remember who I am. That makes my life difficult. It also makes me dangerous...

Shtum by Jem Lester- Orion- 978-1-4091-6651-1- HC- $32.99- Fiction- 368 pp.- May 2016

Ben Jewell's ten-year-old son, Jonah, has never spoken, so when Ben and Jonah are forced to move in with Ben's elderly father, three generations of men - one who can't talk; two who won't - are thrown together. As Ben battles on several fronts, Jonah, blissful in his innocence, becomes the prism through which all the complicated strands of personal identity, family history and misunderstanding are finally untangled.

For the Love of MARY by Christopher Meades - ECW Press- 978-1-55022-974-5- TPB- $18.95- Fiction- 352 pp.- June 2016

Fifteen-year-old Jacob feels "almost" on the inside: almost smart, almost funny, almost good-looking, almost worthy of falling in love. Jacob's mother has just started a curious (and rather un-Christian) holy war with the church across the street, while his father has secretly moved into the garage. But everything changes when Jacob meets Mary, the daughter of the minister at the enormous rival church.

Happy Family by Tracy Barone- Little Brown- 978-0-316-34260-5- HC- $31.50- Fiction- 400 pp. - May 2016

Trenton, New Jersey, 1962: A pregnant girl staggers into a health clinic, gives birth, and flees. A foster family takes the baby in, and an unlikely couple, their lives unspooling from a recent tragedy, hastily adopts her. Forty years and many secrets and lies later, Cheri Matzner is all grown up and falling apart. Thrust into an odyssey of acceptance, Cheri discovers that sometimes it takes half a lifetime to come of age.
