NOTE TO GUESTS:
Dr. Schuller always dedicated his dreams to God. There was a formal dedication for every building on this campus. Today is not merely the day when we say goodbye to a dreamer but a time for you to take your fledgling hope, your floundering dream, your infant inspiration, and pray God’s breath upon it. When you take time, following this service, to walk through the exhibit: Dr. Robert H. Schuller: Standing on the Edge of Tomorrow, Dreaming Big for God, you will have an opportunity to select a Dreamer Card Keepsake. You can write your dream on the Dreamer Dedication Card and submit it for dedication to the greater glory of God. We also invite you to visit drschuller.org and submit your dream to the upcoming Dreamer’s Dedication Wall.

Thank you for joining us today in celebration of the beautiful, unique, diverse, faith-filled man who was Dr. Robert Harold Schuller.

Special Thanks To:
Christ Cathedral, Roman Catholic Diocese of Orange whose generosity and hours of labor made this impossible service possible.
Allen & Sue Boerner, whose launching donation, subsequent gifts, and devotion of staff labor earned them the right to be called benefactors of this service.
Mr. Pat Millicano, Vice President of Action Horizons, whose round the clock attention to the production elements and vendor recruitment made it all work.
Allison Bush, of Davis Partners who took this service on as her #1 Priority and advocated for it from start to finish.
Tracey Lucas, for donating her graphic art talent for people she never met.
Arts & Antiquities, INC. for giving their whole heart and creativity to the exhibit: Dr. Robert H. Schuller: Standing on the Edge of Tomorrow, Dreaming Big for God
Plain Joe Media for their fine tuning of: drschuller.org
Bob Cavinder for dropping everything to develop the initial site: drschuller.org
Honored Guests, whose tender and faithful care of the senior Schullers during a difficult time surrounded scars with stars.
All the service participants who gave of their time, paid their own travel and honored Dr. Robert H. Schuller, our father and mentor. For being clergy to clergy and the musicians and vocalists for being art to an artist.
Ms. Carol Aspling, for jumping in with both feet as she always does with no expectation of recognition.
To the camera crew: Trevor, Sam and Cameron for coming on board last minute.
Carol Barber of Shepherd’s Grove Academy who loaned the choir risers
George Johnsen, my friend, for his “post” resources
