Sascha Breuer Hairstylist & Consultant

Dear Friends,

Hope everyone is having a happy and healthy summer!

I've been enjoying a star-dusted couple of weeks with the kit being packed, unpacked, and repacked constantly as I fly about from cover shoots, press junkets, and jobs.

I've had the amazing opportunities to work with some incredible leading ladies, including talented beauty Anne Hathaway, (promoting her upcoming film, 'One Day,') as well as the wonderful Felicity Huffman, (of 'Desperate Housewives' fame,) the stunning Kat Graham, ('Vampire Diaries',) and international action sensation Maggie Q, (star of hit series 'Nikita.')

Amidst the excitement and chaos, Debbie Walter Management and myself have amicably separated after five fantastic years of collaborating.

After the bittersweet decision to pursue independent careers, I am left with the great pleasure of announcing some fantastic news.....
