

100 Dolls. Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Fairfax county, Virginia, on the 4th inst. a negro man named Lewis, and calls himself

Lewis Berry.

He is about twenty-three or four years of age, dark complected, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, and well made.— Having been in my possession but a short time, I know of no particular mark about his person.

Lewis had on when he ran off a drab country-cloth coat, blue pantaloons, and black hat; and carried with him some linen clothing. He was born in Fairfax, lived the last year at George Henry's, in Loudoun, and for many years previous with A. Jenners, near Waterford, where he is well known to every person, and where he has a free mulatto wife, and where he will no doubt direct his course, or to some free state. I will give, to any person apprehending and securing in any jail of this state, said negro, fifty dollars; or, if taken in any other state, one hundred dollars.
