Past Recipients of Scholarships

2015

Meredith Tweddle
Archdall Preaching Bursary 2015
The provision of Archdall Preaching Bursary will enable Meredith to spend the year focused on improving her skills in preaching God’s word.
Meredith loves encouraging women and youth in their understanding of the Bible.

Candice Bergamin
Maude Ashe Scholarship 2015
Candice is currently studying at Moore College, and is involved in women’s and children’s ministry in her local church. She would like to be involved in university student ministry in the future. The Maude Ashe Scholarship will support her in her final year of the Bachelor of Divinity.
2014

Lily Strachan

Archdale Preaching Bursary 2014
Lily serves in a church plant of Church by the Bridge and studies at Moore College. As the recipient of the Archdale Preaching Bursary and an Evangelism and New Churches preaching apprentice, Lily speaks in school assemblies, chapel services and on campus.

Anna Grummitt

Cornhill Sydney Preaching Scholarship 2014
Anna is an MTS apprentice at St Thomas’ North Sydney and is undertaking the Cornhill program to better teach God’s word clearly and faithfully to people in all contexts.

Susan Lucre

Cornhill Sydney Preaching Scholarship 2014
Susan is very appreciative of the ADM Cornhill Scholarship. She is enjoying digging into the Bible in a new and fresh way. The course means that she has begun sharpening her skills in presenting the Bible faithfully, truthfully and passionately in all areas of her ministry.

Kara Hartley

Arrow Leadership Scholarship 2014
Archdeacon Kara Hartley was awarded the 2014 Arrow Leadership Scholarship which aims to nurture Christian leaders during a two-year mentoring program. Kara is keen for women across the diocese to be equipped for the ministry of the gospel and seeks to encourage and promote ministry by and among women, so that more women throughout the city hear of Jesus.

Elise O’Connor Scott

Cornhill Sydney Preaching Scholarship 2014
Elise is a member at St Thomas’ Anglican Church North Sydney and is active in the City Bible Forum and Youthworks. Elise looks to the Cornhill Program to more fully equip her to unpack the Bible with believers and non-believers.

Kate Bradford

Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award 2014
Kate is currently the Anglican Chaplain in the Sydney Children’s Hospital Network (Westmead Campus). The Award will enable Kate to present a paper at the 2015 Paediatric Chaplains Network Conference, and visit the chaplaincy departments of several major paediatric hospitals in the USA.

Dr Moyra Dale

Maureen Cripps Development Award 2014
Moyra is a leader of the Carlton Housing Estates Congregation of St. Jude’s Anglican Church Carlton. She will use the Award to developing training and mentoring programs for training organisations and Christian workers across a range of cultural contexts.
Rebekah Earnshaw

Travel Scholarship 2014 and Special Research Award

Rebekah will embark on PhD studies at the University of St Andrews, Scotland from 2014 to 2017, focusing on John Calvin’s work on Genesis in relation to God’s providence. Her goal in this further study is both personal growth in Christ and pursuit of new ministry opportunities in academia and theological education. Training women for ministry in Sydney is close to Rebekah’s heart and she may be the first woman to undertake doctoral studies in theology abroad and return to serve in this field in Sydney. ADM is very pleased to assist with a special scholarship of $15,000 p.a. for three years, in addition to the award of the 2014 Travel Scholarship.
2013

Gabrielle Aylward
Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award
The Award will enable Mrs Aylward to complete her Dip Th. Gabrielle is the Children’s Minister at her church and is actively involved in pastoral care, teaching SRE, running after school and holiday clubs for primary aged children and is a Bible study group associate leader.

The Rev. Sharon Phillips
Margaret Rodgers Scholarship
Now a widow of three children, the Rev Phillips continues the cell she and her husband received to teach, pastor and support other ministers. The ADM Scholarship will assist her to complete her MA Min.

Annabel Nixey
Archdall Preaching Bursary
Annabel regularly disciples and teaches the Bible to youth and women whilst completing her theological studies at MTC. She is on the EQUIP Conference Committee where she will preach in 2013. Her goal is to minister alongside her husband as God and opportunities arise.

Pip Taylor
Cornhill Sydney Preaching Bursary
Pip is passionate about communicating the Gospel. Wife of a trainee Anglican minister, she already teaches to a wide audience ranging from years 2-6 at Sunday School to youth and Bible study groups. She also regularly ministers at a retirement village.

Sarah Kinstead
Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award
As a MA student, Mrs Kinstead will use the Award towards continuation of training as Level 1 Pastoral Supervisor accreditation for Chaplains in hospitals, goals, schools, aged-care facilities and parishes. Sarah is actively engaged in many facets of ministry alongside her minister husband.
Pam Hilton

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Pam will use the Bursary towards completing a Dip Th at Mary Andrews College. She has a MA Ed and is very active in her local church with missions, music, council and Bible study. Pam also co-ordinates and teaches SRE.

Emily Just

Maude Ashe Scholarship

Emily Just will use the scholarship to assist with the costs of completing a BD at Moore Theological College before returning to Adelaide to minister as a women's worker at Holy Trinity.
Alexandra Robinson
Anna Pallister Scholarship

Alexandra Robinson leads Bible studies with her husband and is involved in serving at her local church in a variety of other ways. Alexandra graduated with a BA from Wesley Institute in 2007 following which she commenced biblical and theological studies. In 1 Semester 2012 she was invited to become a PhD student. The title of her project is A linguistic Analysis of the Greek Text of the Epistle of Jude; the aim of which is to produce texts to assist students and churches study the teachings therein on judgment and Christian hope. Mrs Robinson plans to present at the Fellowship of Biblical Studies Annual Conference in 2013.

Shirley Cambitzi
Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Committed to her local church where she serves in a variety of roles including Bible reading and prayer, Shirley has also taught Special Religious Education (SRE) in schools and recently participated in Indigenous ministry at Katherine Christian Convention. The Narelle Jarrett Bursary will assist fund her studies at Mary Andrews College where she is studying a Diploma in Ministry.

The Rev. Dr Margaret Powell
Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award

Already involved in ministry, discipleship and leadership for many years, the Rev. Dr Margaret Powell has recently completed linguistic and cultural studies in Australia with a view to reaching a broader group of people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This Scholarship will help to fund further biblical and linguistic studies over a three month intensive block overseas later this year.

Alexandra Robinson
Travel Scholarship

Alexandra Robinson leads Bible studies with her husband and is involved in serving at her local church in a variety of other ways. Alexandra graduated with a BA from Wesley Institute in 2007 following which she commenced biblical and theological studies. In 1 Semester 2012 she was invited to become a PhD student. The title of her project is A linguistic Analysis of the Greek Text of the Epistle of Jude. Mrs Robinson will use her scholarship to travel overseas, where her mentor resides, to undertake intensive research and plans to present at the Fellowship of Biblical Studies Annual Conference in 2013.
Fiona Smartt

Arrow Scholarship

Fiona Smartt had the joy of being born into a Christian family and has followed Jesus for as long as she can remember. She is currently serving at Christ Church Inner West - an Anglican church in Sydney. Fiona loves working as the evening Congregation Pastor in a growing and diverse congregation that includes high schoolers, young adults and internationals. Fiona has been married to Ryan since 2004 and they like living in Ashfield and regularly going out together for dumplings.

---

Dr Claire Smith

Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award

Dr Smith currently works in lay ministry within Sydney and beyond, including teaching and pastoral involvement at her local church, conference Bible teaching, retreats, itinerant evangelism, writing books and articles, theological editing for Christian publications and occasional lecturing. As a clergy wife, she is also actively involved in ministry with her husband. Claire will use the Award to attend the Gospel Coalition Women’s Conference ‘Here is our God’ in Orlando, Florida in June 2012.

---

Jo Mason

Maude Ashe Scholarship

Enrolled in a Bachelor of Divinity at Moore College, Ms Mason regularly co-leads a Bible study group at her local church. She has also been involved in music and youth ministry. Jo would like to be involved in high school chaplaincy or university student ministry in the future.

---

Sarah Condle

Maureen Cripps Ministry Development Award

Since 2000, Mrs Condle and her husband have been running marriage enrichment courses for students at Moore Theological College. Sarah will use the ADM Ministry Development Award to attend a Seminar in the UK and a Course in America on marriage. She intends to research and develop a Marriage Education Program together with her husband at the completion of their studies for use in Churches and local communities.
Petra Palmer

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

As a minister's wife, Mrs Palmer is always involved in her local church, hospitality and parish visitations. She has worked with CMS and lived and served in churches in both Germany and Tanzania. Petra teaches scripture at a primary school in the eastern suburbs of Sydney and co-leads a Bible study group. Previously a student of both Moore Theological College and Deaconess House, the Narelle Jarrett Bursary will enable her to continue studying for a Diploma at Mary Andrews College.

Wilma Prountzos

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

As Mrs Prountzos works towards a Diploma of Ministry, she is also a volunteer worker at Kairos, ministering to women in prison and is regularly involved in home mission support at her local church. For some years, Wilma has enjoyed being part of a nursing home ministry team. She will use the Narelle Jarrett Bursary to complete the subject Communicating Effectively in Semester one.

Margaret Wesley

Anna Pallister Scholarship

Mrs Margaret Wesley is completing a Doctorate in Theology at Morling College with a dissertation entitled What have you to do with me? The Family of Jesus on the Fourth Gospel. Margaret is also on the teaching faculty at Mary Andrews College.

Natalie Miliken

Margaret Rodgers Scholarship

Mrs Miliken is the inaugural recipient of an ADM Margaret Rodgers Scholarship. She will use the award to complete her Masters of Theology at St Mark's Theological College in Canberra. Natalie is currently involved as a lay preacher, reader and minister at her local church as well as being actively involved as a Kids Club supervisor and Bible study leader. She will commute from her home in the Snowy Mountains to Canberra to complete her studies each week.
2011

Kate Ramshaw
Archdale Preaching Bursary

Kate Ramshaw is a second year student at Moore Theological College. She loves preaching and is passionate about ministry to young people. The Archdale Preaching Bursary will provide her with financial support for twelve months whilst she studies.

Susan Loftus
Travel Scholarship

Mrs Loftus is a committed Christian who has been involved in voluntary pastoral care, children's ministry and choir and youth activities at her local church. She will be using her ADM Scholarship to present her paper Episcopal Consecration - the Contemporary Religious Practice of Late Antique Gaul in the 6th and 7th Century at the four yearly International Conference on Patristic Studies at Oxford University. Susan will also be taking the opportunity to conduct research using original sources in UK, France and Belgium before returning to Australia to complete her PhD.

Petra Palmer
Narelle Jarrett Bursary

As a minister's wife, Mrs Palmer is always involved in her local church, hospitality and parish visitations. She has worked with CMS and lived and served in churches in both Germany and Tanzania. Petra teaches scripture at a primary school in the eastern suburbs of Sydney and co-leads a Bible study group. Previously a student of both Moore Theological College and Deaconess House, the Narelle Jarrett Bursary will enable her to continue studying for a Diploma at Mary Andrews College.

Amanda Muir
Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Mrs Muir first enrolled in Mary Andrews College in 2009. She is an active member at her local church in Petersham, where she is a member of the pastoral team, mentors younger women, is on the music roster and co-leads a Bible study group. The Narelle Jarrett Bursary will enable Amanda to progress further towards completing a Diploma of Ministry at Mary Andrews College.

Lara Blair
Ministry Development Award

Mrs Blair BA (Hons), created a two-year curriculum for children's ministry and recently became Sunday School Superintendent at her local church where she trains others for children's ministry. The ADM Ministry Development Award will enable Lara to study an Advanced DipMin at Youthworks.
Louise Gosbell

Anna Pallister Scholarship

Ms Gosbell completed a MTh (Hons) and is studying a PhD. The Anna Pallister Scholarship will assist Ms Gosbell to study for three months at Tyndale House, a Christian educational facility, Cambridge University, UK.

Since 2000, the focus of Ms Gosbell’s ministry has been to assist churches to be inclusive of people with disabilities. She has taught at various conferences on evangelising the disabled and on a Biblical perspective of disability; was a group leader at the 2010 Lausanne Congress on World Evangelism, is on the Diocesan Social Issues Executive and has been Regional Co-ordinator of the Luke 14 program with CBM.

Anna Boxwell

Maude Ashe Scholarship

Enrolled in Moore Theological College since 2008, Mrs Anna Boxwell is also a voluntary student Pastor and leader at her local church. Mrs Boxwell’s thesis is on A Theological Evaluation of the Practice of Embryo Adoption. The Maude Ashe Scholarship will enable her to complete her final year of a Bachelor of Divinity in 2011.
2010

Joanne Magee

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Nominated by her Rector, at St Mark's Anglican Church Harbord, Mrs Magee was encouraged to study a Diploma of Theology at Mary Andrews College. Joanne’s ministry to children and adults is extensive. She is also a volunteer Co-ordinator and Scripture teacher and member of the local church council.

Patricia Driscoll

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

In addition to completing a B.App.Sci (Physio), Mrs Driscoll is reading an Advanced Diploma of Theology at Mary Andrews College. Trish is a member of Wrinmalee Anglican Church where she is involved in women’s ministry, discipleship and has taught Perspectives, a missions training course, both in Australia and overseas.

Catherine Apperley

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Ms Catherine Apperley is completing a Diploma of Theology with Mary Andrews College. As a long-standing member of All Saints Anglican Church, Nowra, she is on the Parish Council, supervises SRE, leads music and worship, teaches and organises and leads visiting Mission Teams.

Janice Grimison

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Already a Diploma student at Mary Andrews College, Ms Grimison also holds a BA and DipEd. She is actively involved at Caringbah Anglican Church, where she is both a Warden and Bible Study leader.

Karen Davison

Narelle Jarrett Bursary

Prior to enrolling in the Diploma course, Ms Davison gained a B.App.Sci and worked as an Occupational Therapist. She is involved at Kingswood Anglican Church, including outreach events, mission work, co-ordinating, leading and teaching women’s Bible study groups.
Sarah Kinstead
Ministry Development Award
A graduate of Moore theological College, and currently doing a MA at NSW College of Clinical Pastoral Education specializing in Pastoral Supervision, Mrs Sarah Kinstead works alongside her husband Robin as a Women’s Pastor. Mrs Kinstead was given an ADM Ministry Development Award to attend the ANZACPE Conference in Hobart and the ANZACPE Education in Supervision at Royal Melbourne Hospital in September 2010.

Ruth Mahaffey
Ministry Development Award
A graduate of both Moore Theological College and School of Christian Studies, Ms Mahaffey is an Anglican Women’s Pastor committed to support, grow and nurture the church and reach the community for Jesus. Ms Mahaffey was awarded an ADM Ministry Development Award to liaise with other churches and attend the Lifeway Women’s Leadership Forum in the USA in November 2010.

Amanda Curley
Travel Scholarship
Amanda Curley attends St Andrew’s Cathedral, co-leads a prayer and Bible study group, is a part-time chaplain at Moore College. She is reading a Master of Theology at Moore Theological College, preparing a dissertation on Implications of Gender and Identity in Ministry. Miss Curley was awarded an ADM Travel Scholarship to attend a conference, theological lectures, and participate in a Christian Doctrine Study Group at Cambridge, UK in the second half of 2010.

Laura Maddock
Maude Ashe Scholarship
The inaugural recipient of the ADM Maude Ashe Scholarship, Ms Laura Maddock, is in the final year of studying a Bachelor of Divinity at Moore College. Ms Maddock is also involved with discipleship and pastoral care at her local church in Sydney. Originally from South Australia, Ms Maddock plans to return upon completion of her studies, to minister at the University of Adelaide.
2009

The Rev. Dr Margaret Powell

Ministry Development Award

The Rev. Dr Powell is engaged in cross-cultural ministry in the Georges River Region. The Grant enabled her attendance at an important conference held in London during September 2009 on the subject of cross-cultural ministry.

Margaret Wesley

Anna Pallister Scholarship

Mrs Margaret Wesley was the first person to be awarded with the ADM Anna Pallister Scholarship. She is completing a Masters in Theology at Morling College with a dissertation entitled What have you to do with me? The Family of Jesus on the Fourth Gospel. Mrs Wesley also teaches at Mary Andrews College.