

El Pugil Tempranillo 2014, Toro, Spain

A thoroughly modern take on Tempranillo, this is a wine that punches above its weight. Full of bright cherry, strawberry and raspberry fruity notes, it has a smooth finish that won't knock you out.

Eleve Malbec, Pays d'Oc 2015, France

You might think Malbec hails from Argentina but it's true home is south-west France. The French are reclaiming Malbec and this racy red has a genuine depth of flavour, full of brambly fruit with a spicy finish. A wine that's French through and through. A wine you can drink with or without food.

Portillo Pinot Noir 2014, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina

From sustainable producer, Salentein, the winemakers aim to make exceptional wines while supporting the local people and community and encouraging local biodiversity. This pinot noir shows the care they take during production, one for the planet conscious.

Domaine Mas Barrau Cabernet Franc 2014, Pays du Gard, France

From southern Rhone, this wine bears the influences of the Rhone Valley; supple with a peppery finish, full of rich fleshy fruit flavours countered by woody notes and a honey finish. Tremendous value.

Biferno Rosso Riserva, DOC Palladino, 2010, Italy

A blend of Montepulciano with Aglianico and white grape Trebbiano thrown in for good measure, this Italian red is velvety smooth but still has a zing to it that will keep you coming back for more.

Terra Gens Sangiovese di Romagna Riserva 2012, Emilia-Romagna, Italy

Sangiovese is better known as the grape used to make Chianti but this full bodied red wine from the gentle rolling hills of Romagna has intense, ripe red fruit flavours with delicate hints of violet and vanilla. A wilder version of the Chianti's of Tuscany.

Les Pivoines Beaujolais Villages 2013, France

The big brother of Beaujolais Nouveau, Beaujolais Villages wines are left to age longer which gives them character and depth. An exuberant wine full of fresh strawberry and Morello cherry flavours, this wine is a classic and one our tasting panel really enjoyed.

The Big Top Old Vines Zinfandel 2014, California

A surprisingly affordable California red wine, this zinfandel is bursting with jammy red fruit but it's not over the top. A soft and gentle wine, it has a spicy character that saves it from being a one dimensional fruit bomb.

Sixty Clicks Shiraz Mataro 2014, Australia

The wine clearly wins the prize for most outstanding label, one that tips a hat to Hunter S. Thompson and the age of psychedelia. Inside the bottle is a wine with fresh bramble and cherry fruit flavours that leaves you with a fabulous spicy finish.

Finca Constancia 2012, Spain

A beautiful Spanish red from Tierra de Castilla, aged in oak, with a base of Tempranillo and Cabernet Sauvignon, tasting like a bottle that's twice the price.

ROSÉ WINES

Rare Vineyards Cinsault Vieilles Vignes Rosé 2015, Pays d'Oc, France

The Cinsault grape is most often used in blends but this rosé is bottled early to capture all those fresh early summer fruits like raspberry and cherry to give a wine that reminds us of sunny days in the south of France.

Montevista Sauvignon Blanc Rosé 2014, Chile

Yes, you read that right, a Rosé wine made from Sauvignon Blanc. The winemakers decided to have a bit of fun and let the juice from the grapes sit on red wine skins for a few hours before making this wine. It has the crisp, fresh flavours typical of Sauvignon Blanc.

Viñas del Vero Gewurztraminer 2014, Somantano, Spain

It's a mouthful to say, just call it Gewurz, but once you try it, you'll be coming back for more of this aromatic yet delightfully dry white wine – it's a perfect aperitif.

Moon River Pinot Grigio 2015, Hungary

A mellow pinot grigio from vineyards that overlook the Danube river, this wine is not the old boring Italian Pinot Grigio but is refreshingly lemony without the bitter aftertaste, finishes off with tasty ripe apple notes.

La Poggiere Est! Est!! Est!!! di Montefiascone 2015, Italy

Legend has it that a 12th century German Bishop was going to meet the Pope and whilst travelling through Italy was looking for the best wines on his route. When he tasted this wine from the town of Montefiascone he cried, "Est! Est!!Est!!!" which translate as, "This is it!" We think after trying it you'll be saying, "more, more, more!"

Emiliana Reserva Riesling Bio Bio Valley 2015, Chile

Don't let Rieslings reputation for being sweet put you off this Chilean offering. Pleasingly fruity, this is a well balanced wine with lemon-lime zest flavours and aromas. Riesling is currently all the rage and after tasting this, you'll see why.

Jean Biecher Pinot Blanc 2014, Alsace, France

One of several planet conscious wines we have on our list, pinot blanc is related to pinot noir but produces white wine. Floral aromas are followed by loads of white and yellow peach flavours, a sophisticated wine at an affordable price. The owner's favourite!

Esperao Alandra Branco Alentejo 2015, Portugal

A pleasing blend of 3 native Portuguese varieties, this white wine is cool and supple with delicious nectarine and white stone fruit flavours. We feel great supporting Portuguese wines and we hope you will too.

Sangoma Chenin Blanc 2015, South Africa

South Africa has taken Chenin Blanc to heart and is now producing some real gems. This white has hints of orchard fruits on the palate offset by ripe tropical fruit flavours. A Chenin blanc that is sure to please.

St Jacques Reserve Viognier 2014, France

Viognier grapes produce aromatic wines full of peach and ripe apricots, a round wine with a touch of honey. This is a wine that's sure to lift your spirits.

Torricella Orvieto Classico 2014, Italy

The Orvieto region of central Italy might not be as well known as it's neighbour Tuscany but it has a tradition of wine production since the Middle Ages. This dry white is medium bodied with loads of pear and bitter almond flavours.

Pueblo del Sol, Sauvignon Blanc 2014, Uruguay

Sauvignon Blanc is making a mark in Uruguay and we're happy to have this sustainable wine on our list. A refreshing wine that has the classic aromas of gooseberry and passionfruit with refreshing citrus and tropical fruit flavours.

SPARKLING WINE

Cavicchioli Lambrusco Amabile NV, Emilia Romagna, Italy

Lambrusco is back, baby! This is a modern style of sparkling Italian red that is light and fragrant. A bubbly delight full of ripe raspberry and blackcurrant flavours, this wine will surprise you. Try it to see why our parents were crazy for it!

Vetriano Prosecco 2014, Italy

Prosecco is the most popular sparkling wine in the UK and this one shows us why. It's made from the traditional Glera grape and has all the hallmarks of classic Prosecco; bright and fruity flavours of pears and melons with fine bubbles. Perfect to share with friends.

SHERRY

La Guita, Manzanilla, Jerez, Spain - £5.50 (125 ml)

Sherry is enjoying a rediscovery amongst the drinking classes. Try this and you'll see why; it's salty, tangy flavours with a hint of nuttiness on the finish. Thus proving that Sherry is not just for Nan anymore but that it's a perfect dry aperitif. Pairs perfectly with our salted almonds.
