

Mainstreaming Interethnic Inclusiveness

Martin Luther King Jr.

28 August 1963

Lincoln Memorial

Washington D.C.

Track record on interethnic inclusiveness

Best practice guidelines for the inspirational approach to interethnic inclusiveness

- Mainstreaming Individual Dreams
- Let Freedom Ring (LFR) approach
- Proposed list of musical sources for inspirational approach

Geographic implementation of Let Freedom Ring (LFR) best practices

:

- New Hampshire.
- New York.
- Pennsylvania.
- Colorado.
- California.
- Stone Mountain of Georgia.
- Lookout Mountain of Tennessee.
- every hill of Mississippi

Geographic overview of planned best practice implementation

Operationalizing best practices

- Nation's creed should be implemented more inclusively
- Descendants of former slaves and of former slave owners should synchronize sitting at same table
- Primary evaluation criterion for children should be content of character

Proposed list of musical sources for inspirational approach :

- National hymns, e.g. “My country ‘tis of thee”
- Old Negro spirituals: e.g. “Free at last”

Ethnic groups to which inclusively mainstreamed best practices should apply:

- black men
- white men
- Jews
- Gentiles
- Protestants
- Catholics
- all of God's children

Main points going forward

- Interethnic inclusiveness necessary condition for national development
- Gap between best practice and implementation needs to be urgently addressed
- Coordination among interethnic actors needs to be improved