THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Because Cain killed his brother Abel, the Lord said he was under a curse and would be driven from the ground. Cain said to the Lord "My punishment is more than I can bear, I will be a restless wanderer on the earth and whoever finds me will kill me." What did the Lord say and do to him?

PRAYER IN THE BEACON CENTRE

No more prayer meetings in the Beacon Centre on Monday evenings or Tuesday mornings until September.

GREEN LIGHT ON THE BEACON CENTRE

We finally received all three quotes in for the refurbishment of the Beacon Centre, and the PCC approved the instruction of Dan Prayag to oversee the work.

Dan owns Anthuriums in Coney Hall and works closely with a design team and a builder, who is also local. It's great that the best proposal came from a team who are part of our community. Next week a detailed survey will be taking place, alongside initial CAD drawings, so that design concepts can really take off and there will be something for everyone to visualize.

We'll keep you posted with as many updates as possible.

In the meantime, Dan has asked if we could pray for the speedy recovery of one of his daughters, Anna. She has been unwell and is at Great Ormond Street, with a condition that looks to involve a long process of recovery.

WELCOME TO ST JOHN'S

If this is your first time here, we are delighted to see you. If you can, do stay for a drink after the service. If you would like to know more about our church life, complete one of the welcome cards.

KEEPING YOU POSTED

Many of you will be aware that we are currently considering the different ways we share information and how we can keep improving our communication. A simple text message has an immediacy that can make it an effective way to give a reminder about something that's taking place. As we continue to update the contact book, we're inviting you to indicate whether this is a means by which you are happy to be notified. A draft of the Contact Book will be on the Welcomers' table and we're inviting you to:

- i) Provide your mobile number if you haven't so far, but are happy to do so and don't mind receiving the occasional text;
- ii) If you have provided your mobile number, but would prefer NOT to receive any texts from St John's, to place a cross next to your entry;
- iii) If you are new and haven't yet provided any contact details – to complete a new contact form and return it in the box provided.
