THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

A man named Naboth owned a vineyard near to the palace of Ahab, King of Samaria. Ahab asked him a question one day and Naboth's answer made him go home very angry and sullen. What made Ahab angry and how was the matter resolved? Read 1 Kings 21: 1 - 15

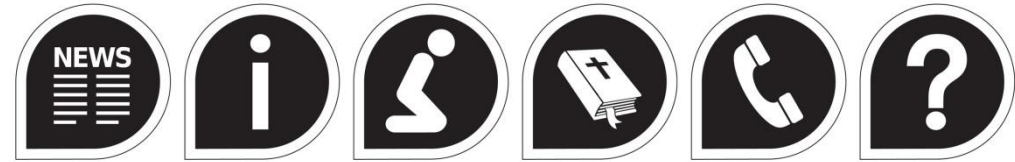

MONDAY EVENING PRAYER MEETINGS – 8-9pm at SJ's

November meetings on 21st & 28th. All welcome.

The meeting on 21st November will focus on the persecuted church across the world. Do come along if you are able. Prayer requests and answers to prayer can be emailed to Sally Munns (sally@munnz.plus.com).

amber crisis pregnancy care

Amber CPC are hosting an event on March 7th 2017 entitled 'Let's Talk About Sex – maybe?'

This will be for a secular audience and held in SJ's. The aim of the evening will be to support parents/ carers/ teachers/ youth workers in talking with their children and young people about some of the issues around sex and relationships in the 21st century.

With limited capacity, we would like to gauge interest to help plan the extent of our advertising. Please help us by indicating if you think you and/or your friends may be interested by emailing alison@amberpregnancy.com or texting 07927034971 by the end of November.

Many thanks.

PRAYERS

Please pray for:

- Dee Larcombe and the work in palliative care in India in which she is involved – our Mission Focus this month;
- Nikki Nash has had her surgery and may well be discharged on Monday. Pray for her and Wayne, and that she remains infection free as she recovers strength;
- The family and friends of Carl, following the news this week that his battle with Leukaemia ended, and he went to be with the Lord;
- Ivan and Margaret Court, as Ivan's health continues to fluctuate after his latest operation;
- Our church as it prepares for the different ways we engage with our community in the run up to Christmas.
- All those who were affected by the Tram accident in Croydon;
