

Can I ask that?

In the coming month, we are inviting you to ask the people you know what questions/subjects would they wish to explore, if they could set the agenda for a discussion around Christianity, life and matters of faith.

Perhaps set it in context, and explain that we are hoping to run some 'one-offs' at SJ's, with drinks and nibbles, to delve into those areas which appear to be of interest.

You can use this sheet to provide the responses people give, or simply email Jon on jjhward75@gmail.com
