Where was his treasure?

Where was his heart?

toward God, His Word, and His Will in my life concerning possessions

Matt 6:19-24

19"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

whole body will be full of light.

First, Intentional Parenting is a quick read. This book took me less than an hour (with a pen in my hand) to read which tells me that the average man will be able to effectively read this book in one week...a chapter a night. Second, there is a resource list in the back of the book that is truly worth the price of the book. Lastly, I greatly appreciated Tad's candor and humility. He writes as one who has been there and done that but also as one who has failed from time to time.

be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness! 24 "No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.

7. So in the first three verses, what examples do I see in myself and other people when it comes to storing up treasures?

Timber Lake Christian Church Class 201 Page 2 of 59. In verse 22 the scripture speak of the eye. What does it say?

Again, we must focus on the _____ of God. When we do our _____ will be full of light. Jesus is light.

10. Verse 24- who are the two masters in this context?

Luke 18:18-23 The Rich Young Ruler

18 A certain ruler asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 19 "Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone. 20 You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'" 21 "All these I have kept since I was a boy," he said.

22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

23 When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was a man of great wealth.

11. Why did the ruler become sad?

12. Take away: It's not wrong for me to have _____ - as long as stuff- as long as stuff doesn't have _____.
