Preparing for Ministry

Over the next three weeks you will be exposed to many opportunities to get involved in some level of ministry here at TLCC. Various ministries require different levels of preparation or training. We have categorized these levels as 1, 2, 3,

Level 1 is a minimal amount of training and generally available to anyone interested in volunteering.

Level 2 is a medium amount of training and available after you have become a member of TLCC and completed a Ministry Worker Application. See one of the ministers or the church secretary for an application.

Level 3 requires a higher level of training and will be based on your interest & abilities as revealed in this Gifts Analysis and Leadership approval.

Share with the group any desires you have had that would even seem mildly appropriate to be called supernatural. (Don’t think that any are silly, if they are supernatural be willing to explore this desire with God and share with your group now.)

1. What is the driving force behind this desire? Why do you think that is?
2. Have you ever given any thought that it could be a calling or responsibility from God?
3. Have you ever considered what God has blessed you with that would compliment this desire?

9. Spiritual gifts are the _____ of the church.

Eight reasons why every Christian should know their spiritual gifts.

Knowing your spiritual gift...

1. ...helps you understand the _____. “What God has called you to do, he has gifted you to do and what He has gifted you to do, He called you to do.”
2. ...helps you know what God has ___ called you to do. The more we understand what we are not called to do, the easier it is to understand what we have been called to do.
3. ...relieves you from serving out of _____.

When people serve out of “duty” they burn out and avoid ministry.

4. ...helps you understand how the Holy Spirit

_____ you. Your spiritual gift allows you to co-create with God.

1 Corinthians 3:9

5. ...fulfills a deep _____. God has placed in the souls of mankind, Christians and non-Christians alike, the need to serve others.
6. ...builds _____ among _____. Understands the gifts of others will help you see things from their perspective.
7. ...equips you to fulfill God’s _____ for your life. God has created each one of us with different gifts, talents, personalities, and passions to outfit us to accomplish His unique purpose for each.
8. ...adds to your self - _____. Real winners in life are those who accept themselves. Spiritual gifts allow individual believers to be themselves.

Read 1 Cor. 13:

1. What happens if I try to serve God for any other reason than my love for Him? Vss. 1-3
2. How can I know if my motive for serving is really love? Vss. 4-7
3. What kinds of ministry can I do for the wrong reason and what may result? Matt. 7:21-23

Growing Spiritually & Serving through Gifts

Next week we will take a “Spiritual Gifts” analysis which will help you think through how God is uniquely equipping you to serve Him and His purpose in this life. A key issue to keep in mind is our motivation for serving versus the results of our serving Him. If your motivation is out of a desire to feel important your motivation will quickly fade. When we desire to serve out of gratitude for what He has done for us your motivation will grow! In two weeks we will meet to discuss the results and field questions inspired by these classes.
