

Congratulations on considering a wedding in paradise! Maui, Hawaii is a place like no other. Come and relax, enjoy the warmth, romance, and wonders of mother-nature. Most importantly, get away from the realities of your backyard. Below is a summary of my extensive offerings. With VOWS you get personal, boutique quality service from a career wedding planner of 11 years. I have a flat fee approach vs. marking up your vendor contracts. I believe that my earnings should be based on my work, not what you spend. I am your 100% partner during the planning process. I look forward to hearing your vision and making your Maui wedding that much more memorable, beautiful, and stress free! ~ Katy Roberts, owner
