

THE UNITY MAP

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

SELECT YOUR IDENTIFIERS: Choose the identifiers that describe you. Select as many as you wish. Mark the corresponding numbers on the UNITY map to the right. You will notice #32 is blank. We invite you to add your own identifier, not included in the list below, that is meaningful to you.*

PLOT YOUR PATH: Using a criss-cross pattern, draw lines to connect your numbers to each other.

START YOUR JOURNEY: Go to the center of UNITY and get a ball of yarn from a volunteer. You'll start and end your journey at the center pole.

MAP YOUR IDENTITY: Wrap your yarn around each pole you've identified. Please pull your yarn so there is no slack in it and keep it above head level if possible. Volunteers will help you. Return to the center when you're done.

*32 identifiers is a limited opportunity to explore how we define ourselves and each other. We welcome your ideas for identifiers that would make UNITY a more powerful experience. At pole 32, please share your "I am..." statements with us by writing on the board.

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCE

WITH US: We kindly request that you return this paper so we can use the data to further the conversation. The data you provide will never be tied to your name.

WITH YOUR COMMUNITY: Display your participation in UNITY with a piece of UNITY yarn tied to your wrist.

Don't forget to tag your photos and experiences on social media with #UNITY and #WeLiveBig. Like us on Facebook: facebook.com/WeLiveBig and visit unityproject.net for ongoing updates.
