

About Nacole Palmer

“...the Nativity story came finally, fully alive”

- The New York Times

December 10, 2016 at 7:30 PM

Joy for the Holidays

Handel's Messiah is the most celebrated composition in music history, having been continuously performed in many countries since its premiere in Dublin in 1742. Our own JSO Symphony Chorus will begin their own new era with this greatest of oratorios, and we are delighted to welcome to Johnstown four superb and evocative soloists - Nacole Palmer, Kirsten Solleck, Daniel Mutlu, and Jesse Blumberg.

Nacole Palmer

Kirsten Solleck

Daniel Mutlu

Jesse Blumberg

About Jesse Blumberg

“A golden-toned baritone”

- The New York Times

Handel's Messiah