

2012–2013 Piano Lessons

Begin August 27!

Several openings for private piano instruction are available at Tri-State Christian Academy for students ages 5 and up! Tailored to each individual's abilities and interests, lessons are available during the day or after school and utilize the Fabers' highly popular Piano Adventures series.

Cost: $55 per month (September - May).

Research shows that music education not only provides developmental benefits but also leads to improved reading skills and academics, self-confidence, self-discipline, and life-long success. AND it's fun!

Mary Biron is passionate about introducing students to the joy of making music. She has played piano for 35 years and currently has 18 private piano students. A member of the Early Childhood Music & Movement Association, she is pursuing a B.S. in Early Childhood Education, has served as a musician on her church worship team, and plays colonial tunes on a Native American flute with the Cecil County Heritage Troupe. She brings enthusiasm, dedication, and fun to her work and is much loved by her students.
