Strategy should be reviewed in order to reduce the unemployment of the citizens. The real economy and its components are affected by this situation. There is a perception in society that young people are not contributing to the economy. Besides, some young people are not interested in education. The absence of parental guidance makes children become less interested in the community. As a result, the community cannot be reduced, besides, the economic situation in the country is not good. In addition, the young generation is not interested in education, and this affects the family's socio-economic status. Thus, the family's job opportunities and income are also affected. The family's economic status is also affected. Furthermore, the family's economic status is also affected. These are the reasons for the unemployment of the children.
