Dear Friend of Recovery, Rehabilitation and Rights,

We are very pleased to welcome you to our NYAPRS’ 34th Annual Conference, “Advancing Whole Health & Healthy Communities: The Pathway to Population Health,” held once again within the lovely Catskill Mountains here at the Hudson Valley Resort.

This year’s program provides a timely opportunity to understand and address the rapidly changing healthcare environment in which we find ourselves and some guidance around how to best respond to the opportunities, choices and challenges that we all face.

At the same time, it continues to emphasize that the values of wellness and recovery, healing and transformation, innovation and integration and empowerment and activism that we have long embraced are critical to the success of these initiatives and the richness of our lives.

This year’s program is chock full of opportunities to advance and experience these values and approaches. This year’s program features some extraordinary keynote speakers, including several who are new to our conference and state and who are likely to be much sought after for their deeply inspirational perspectives: Cheryl Sharp, Gina Calhoun, Andre Johnson and Deron Drumm. Our program also offers 60 timely workshops…..and a joyous immersion into the extraordinary spirit of our community.

Please also check out a number of special offerings including:

• the Health, Healing and Arts Fair with free Shiatsu, Massage, Acupuncture, Reiki, and more (you can sign up for these at the NYAPRS registration table);

• our Multicultural Exhibition, Fashion Show and Diversity Bash;

• a special Wednesday film presentation of the nationally acclaimed documentary “Healing Voices”

• our first ever interactive improvisational performance by Creative Action Playback Theater

• music from DJ Jenkins, Mike Skinner’s Open Mic and our nightly Dancin’ with the DJ, and

• our ever popular Thursday evening outdoor barbeque.

We hope that your three days are filled with inspiration, information, celebration, connection and community, along with the opportunity to re-energize and restore your own personal spirit and celebrate the very special contributions each of you has made to advance recovery, rehabilitation, rights, dignity and community inclusion in New York State and nationally.

On behalf of our Conference Committee, the NYAPRS’ Board of Directors, and our dedicated staff, we offer you a very warm welcome to the 34th Annual Conference.

Thank you.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

NYAPRS is proud to offer CEU hours for CASAC, CPRP, CRC, and Social Work
Please follow the instructions below for each

CASAC, CPRP and CRC Credit Hours
PICK UP ATTENDANCE FORM AT THE REGISTRATION DESK BEFORE ATTENDING WORKSHOPS.
ALL CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR CASAC, CPRP, AND CRC Credit Hours

1. The attendance form must be completed in its entirety. Ensure that your name, credential, address and email address is complete and legible. If not, this will compromise your ability to obtain CEU hours.
2. Write in the workshop #, title, presenter’s name, hours of each and the date.
3. After each workshop attended, have the presenter initial the form verifying that you attended the session.
4. At the end of the conference, sign the attendance sheet and submit the document to the NYAPRS Registration Desk. We will process and email a Certificate of Completion within 15 business days.

SOCIAL WORK
TO QUALIFY FOR SOCIAL WORK CEU HOURS:

1. PRIOR to the beginning of each workshop, sign-in at the front of the room. The Monitor will have the attendance sheet. If you arrive after the start of the workshop, you will not be allowed to sign-in and therefore you will not be eligible to receive CEU hours for that workshop.
2. Ensure that your name, credential, and email address is complete and legible. If not, this will compromise your ability to obtain CEU hours. Sign your name.
3. Be present for the entire duration of the workshop.
4. Complete the Evaluation form and submit it to the Monitor at time of sign-out.
5. At the end of the workshop, and only after you have submitted your completed evaluation, sign-out at the front of the room on the same line you signed-in on. The Monitor will have the attendance sheet.
6. If you have met all of these criteria, we will process and email you a Certificate of Completion within 15 business days.

All courses below are 1.25 credit hours except where otherwise noted:
103 Understanding Integrated Care
105 Bridging Care and Promoting Community Inclusion During Care Transitions
113 Recovery and Wellness: Tools for Transformation

This workshop will help us to better understand the voice hearing experience, listen to the narrative and unravel the meaning. International leader Karen Taylor will explore how we can all help voice hearers to not feel stigmatized and discriminated against in our communities and to live full lives. Participants will explore how the impact of voice hearing effects not only for the person but for the family and community around them and how this can become a more positive experience for everyone.

PP 102 Our Pathway to Promoting Population Health in DSRIP & Health Homes Ballroom C
New regional DSRIP networks called Performing Provider Systems are reshaping local systems of care across the state to improve health outcomes for Medicaid beneficiaries, many of whom experience moderate to serious behavioral health conditions. Yet we have heard of very few instances where PPSs have contracted with behavioral health providers to transform and improve how these local systems operate. Here’s a few promising examples of where that is happening, along with an account of how an upstate peer agency is playing a major role in the local health home.

Aileen Martin, Northern Regional Center for Independent Living, Watertown, NY

Kim Taro, Mental Health Association of the Southern Tier, Binghamton, NY

Maura Kelley, Mental Health Peer Connection, Buffalo, NY

MPIC 103 Understanding Integrated Care Columbia
This workshop will follow John, a 32 year old person who is navigating the changes in the way he will receive care during his road to recovery. The presentation will give an overview of integrated medical and behavioral healthcare and its core elements and feature specific examples on how individuals can understand and be involved in their care to make integrated care work for them. It will introduce two workbooks that have been designed with integrated care in mind: Wellness Self-Management and Wellness Self-Management Plus.

Sapana Patel and Paul Margolies, New York State Psychiatric Institute, New York, NY

PS 104 The Peer Workforce: Building a Profession, Maintaining a Movement Dutchess
Join an intergenerational and cross-systems panel of peer leaders in discussing the journey from a movement to a professional workforce and in identifying opportunities in the road ahead.

Bill Gamble, Mental Health Empowerment Project, Albany, NY

Paige Pierce, Families Together of NYS, Albany, NY

Walter Ginter, Medication Assisted Recovery Services, Bronx, NY

EMP 105 Stamping Out Structural Stigma in the Delivery of Behavioral Health Care Services Ulster
Individuals with mental health/substance use disorders are often stigmatized by the very health care system designed to support them. Structural stigma is based upon previously held beliefs that individuals who have mental health or substance abuse disorders are “lesser” than the rest of society. In cultures heavily infused with structural stigma there are disempowerment and low expectations of individuals who have mental health or substance abuse concerns. The presentation then reviews Value Behavioral Health's (VBH-PA) journey from a stigmatizing medical model to a recovery based culture that included recovery focused policies and practices. The engagement center will talk about some of the recovery based programs that it has implemented and concludes with an individual sharing their powerful story on how their life was changed by the recovery based programs offered at VBH-PA.

Lisa Kugler, Beacon Health Options Maryland Division, Baltimore, MD

Clarence Jordan, Vice President of Wellness & Recovery for Beacon Health Options, Memphis, TN

Admin 106 Healthy Agencies Create Healthy Communities: 5 Tools to Prepare The View
Are you using data to support your decision-making? Is your agency contributing to the overall health of your community? How do you know? Good metrics can inform agency operations, highlight trends, and enhance collaboration. This session offers a five-step strategy for using metrics to help agencies eliminate guessing, support growth, operate more efficiently, and improve quality of care.

David Bucciferro, Foothold Technology, Scotia, NY

PP 107 Bridging Care and Promoting Community Inclusion during Care Transitions Hudson 2
This workshop will present a framework and tools for providing transitional care for people with chronic conditions when they make transitions from one setting to another. Transitions between different levels of care are critically important, vulnerable points that contribute to lapses in quality of care and safety.

Helle Thorning and Luis O. Lopez, New York State Psychiatric Institute, New York, NY

Pascale Jean-Noel, Center for Practice and Innovations, New York, NY

PTH 108 Rhythms for Wellness, Recovery and Connection: Community Drumming Outside
This is a longtime NYAPRS favorite: an interactive workshop that presents the opportunity to connect to your innate sense of play and the healing, gentle power of rhythm. You may bring your own percussive instrument. A limited number of instruments (35-45) will be provided.

Chrys Ballerano, NYS Coalition Against Sexual Assault, Albany, NY

EMP 114 How to Meet and Mingle

Does the idea of talking to people you don’t know, make you weak in the knees? This workshop will offer some fun and engaging strategies that will help you to overcome your fears and meet new people with charm and confidence. This fun and interactive workshop will also present opportunities to brainstorm about how to overcome obstacles to dating such as budget limitations, transportation and the dreaded first date jitters.

Amy Colesante and Bill Gamble, Mental Health Empowerment Project, Albany, NY

S&H 115 Beyond the Book Cover: Claiming Our Narratives

You really can’t judge a book by its cover. Re-framing our stories is a key recovery component to manifest who we really are, not by someone else’s definition. Who’s writing the story is as important as who is reading. Let’s reclaim our stories, maintain our dignity, and effectively collaborate with others.

PS 116 Peer Specialist Career Mobility and Advancement: Barriers and Opportunities

We will present results from two national surveys: one focused on the workplace experiences and perceived career development supports of about 1,000 peer specialists, and the second on national and state peer specialist workforce composition and challenges. Following the survey presentation, we will facilitate audience discussion of findings and implications.

Healing Our Pasts, Hope for our Futures: Understanding the Power of Post-Traumatic Growth

Cheryl Sharp, National Council for Behavioral Health, Washington, DC

Introduction: Cathy Cave, Mental Health Empowerment Project, Albany, NY

Cheryl Sharp is a nationally recognized expert who will “share my story from the early childhood trauma to the deep despair that many of us find ourselves in when we lose the capacity to cope.” Her presentation will talk about the process “from a life sentence of ‘mental illness’ to an understanding that wellness and recovery occurs along a continuum. Life has become an amazing journey full of amazing people and it seems to only be getting better. all of us deserve a life worth living; fully and with joy.”

7:15pm-9:00pm  Documentary ‘Healing Voices’ ................................................................. Manhattan Theatre

HEALING VOICES is a new social-action documentary feature which is expected “to go a long way to healing our fear of people commonly labeled as “schizophrenic,” “bipolar,” and “psychotic.” The message of this film is that understanding and love—not fear and stigmatizing labels—are what people who have experienced these altered states need.”

The film explores two question: What are we talking about when we talk about “mental illness”? What is truly helpful?

“By way of the harrowing and inspiring stories of individuals learning to negotiate and grow through the madness, HEALING VOICES challenge us to rethink our cultural understanding of “mental illness” by bringing a message of recovery, and charting the course for the effective alternative treatments that enable people to live productive meaningful lives.”

The film is co-produced by Oryx Cohen, an extraordinary leader in the international consumer/survivor/ex-patient movement who currently serves as the director of the National Empowerment Center’s Technical Assistance Center.

The Impact of Poverty and Racism on Population Health

It is becoming increasingly clear that population health is directly affected by an individual's social, economic and housing status as well as factors contributing to social injustice and health disparities and inequities. This workshop considers the complex ways in which poverty and racism can combine to negatively impact health and wellness by increasing stigma and restricting opportunities for people of color and people who are struggling to make ends meet. Join our presenters as we explore strategies to overcome barriers and challenges to integrating social factors into the promotion of full population health.

HARP Lessons Learned: We’re All in It Together

Building on its reputation for outstanding service to the Medicaid population, the Capital District Physicians Health Plan (CDPHP) has partnered with Community Care Behavioral Health for its experience in population health management in Pennsylvania, as well as its work here in New York to assist in meeting the needs of HARP members. This unique model offers an enhanced “boots on the ground” strategy to assist HARP members in connecting to an integrated provider community.

Don’t Let Our Lives Go Up in Smoke

This workshop will focus on the impact that smoking has on the health and lives of people with behavioral health conditions. We will show a short video and present information from the research literature on how smoking affects a variety of critical health indicators that often result in early death. We will then engage in a dialogue with workshop participants on the barriers people face in their efforts to quit smoking as well as systems-level barriers practitioners face in trying to help people quit. We will also identify some of the myths smokers and treatment providers have about smoking and what treatments work. We will then brainstorm ideas on what can help consumers quit who still smoke so that they can have a healthier and longer life.

Forrest Foster, Luis Lopez, Nancy Covell, and Bernadette Cain, New York State Psychiatric Institute, New York, NY
The Expanding Role of Peer Support: Health, Wellness, and Community Connectedness

The presentation will provide participants with a brief review of how peer support has evolved over the past 50 years, from mutual self-help groups and grassroots peer advocacy organizations to more formal peer support programs and services offered through community-based peer-run organizations and agencies. With the growing emphasis on integrated healthcare, new opportunities have arisen for peer support services and programs. The relationship between personal and community health and wellness will be explored. Ideas for innovations in expanding peer support will be presented and discussed.

Thomas Lane, Magellan Public Sector Solutions, St. Pierce, FL

Creating Wellness: Nuts and Bolts for Planning and Conducting a Health Fair

Health and wellness are important for people in mental health and addictions recovery. This session will explore the nuts and bolts of planning and implementing a health fair to empower one another with tools to prevent and manage health issues to enhance quality of life and lifespan. The empowering role of peer providers will be discussed.

Crucial Conversations in Peer Support

This interactive workshop teaches the dynamics to achieve mutuality in understanding and connectedness through vital conversations in peer support. Participants develop tools, skills, and an enhanced capacity to create synergy that transforms people and relationships through constructive conversations. These powerful resources can benefit team building, performance management, conflict resolution, and problem solving.

Keynote: March for Mental Health: Destination Dignity

A grassroots movement is gaining strength across our nation, a movement dedicated to creating a groundswell all across our society that says ‘enough!’ to the discrimination, defamation and marginalization of our community! This movement is coming together to organize a series of national and local events that are intended to serve as the tipping points that Selma, Seneca Falls and Stonewell represented for African Americans, women and LGBTQI individuals.

Come hear from the nation’s chief organizer about the October 10th march in Washington DC and the March for Mental Health: Destination Dignity that NYAPRS will be hosting in 2018.

Creating a Competent Recovery Workforce through the Principles and Practices of Psych Rehab

You know that psychiatric rehabilitation practice works in supporting and promoting recovery. This presentation provides a framework for defining the principles and values while introducing the value of practitioner credentialing. The goal of the presentation is to strengthen the participants' capacity to accurately and succinctly describe the practice and principles of psychiatric rehabilitation along with the value of practitioner certification.

Encouraging Wellness: Empowering Consumers to Take Charge of their own Mental & Physical Health

This workshop will focus on the ways that Venture House encourages its members to take charge of their own mental and physical recovery and wellbeing. We will describe some of the consumer-driven wellness oriented activities that Venture House promotes, including WRAP workshops, wellness walks, nutrition workshops, COD groups, meditation/yoga, along with wellness dinners. These activities all foster a sense of self-advocacy and facilitate motivation to change. All of these activities can be implemented into any mental health recovery oriented program. Of prime importance to this workshop is the belief that hope is an essential component to any aspect of recovery.

Our Mission:
We are committed to supporting collaborative Care Management services that respect participant preferences; are culturally sensitive to their needs; and are directed in a way that promotes the most positive health outcomes in mind, body and spirit.

Who we are:
Encompass Health Home is a collaboration of Catholic Charities and their partners across Upstate New York managed by Catholic Charities of Broome County. In 2017, Catholic Charities of New York will celebrate its 100th anniversary. As a Health Home we began enrolling adults in 2012 and as we continue to expand in the effort to positively impact the lives of the most vulnerable in our communities, we are committed to providing high quality, person-centered care aimed at providing opportunities and choices for enhancing health and success for those we support.

As a current Adult Health Home and emerging Health Home Serving Children, we are dedicated to growing and nurturing our network to encompass a vast range of exceptional health care, care management and community service providers aimed at providing all individuals with outstanding comprehensive care.

Coming soon:
Beginning December 1st, 2016, Encompass Health Home will begin enrolling individuals as a part of our Health Home Serving Children across 48 Counties in Upstate NY.
