

Ignite Intensive with Steve Addison, 1 & 2 March 2013

We are delighted that Steve Addison will be back with us for our Ignite Intensive in March. Since then, Steve has published his second book; What Jesus Started: Joining the Movement, Changing The World. It's a great book that Steve will be training us in.

Steve trained us in the "Following Jesus, Fishing for People" workshops that he ran at our last Ignite Intensive about 6 months ago. It was an important time where we learnt much, and had much to try to contextualise and apply so that we could be more effective at reaching people with the gospel and then discipling them to be followers of Jesus.

Steve will run 2 workshops when he visits us. They will be:

Workshop 1-Strategy Discussion

When:	Friday 1 March from 10am to 4pm
Who For:	People familiar with the principles Steve taught last time, or T4T principles
What:	In this workshop, Steve will be facilitating discussion of effective strategies that we can use in our own churches and contexts to effectively reach people with the gospel. You will need to come prepared to talk about your main evangelism strategies, what is working and what isn't.
Outcome:	The desired outcome of this workshop will be to help pastors and leaders be more effective at designing ministries that will be more effective at mobilising the congregation to reach people with the gospel.
Cost:	$50 per attendee (Meals not included)

Workshop 2-What Jesus Started

When:	Friday 1 March from 7pm to 9pm and Saturday from 9am to 4pm
Who For:	People who want to be equipped effectively to be followers of Jesus who are effective at fishing for people.
What:	In this workshop, Steve will be helping us to see the vision that Jesus has for us and then training us in connecting, sharing, training others, gathering and multiplying the fruits of our ministry.
Outcome:	The desired outcome of this workshop will be to help train and equip all believers to be the disciples who Jesus calls us to be.
Cost:	$50 per attendee (Meals not included)
