DESCRIPTION

Tex Perkins is an Australian singer-songwriter, who is widely known for fronting the popular Australian rock-band The Cruel Sea, but has also performed with the Beasts of Bourbon, Thug, James Baker Experience, The Butcher Shop, Salamander Jim, and Tex, Don and Charlie. He has also released many solo records. In 1997, a portrait of Tex Perkins by artist Bill Leak won the Packing Room award at the Archibald Prize.

And now the exciting news....Tex Perkins is playing 3 intimate gigs at Kandooma Resort 06 – 13 SEPTEMBER 2015 – spots are limited – so book your spot ASAP!! Special discounts apply for bookings made by 31Mar15, see below.

All three gigs will feature unique set lists drawn from Tex's many epic incarnations. (See Tex's bio below.) The gigs will be held in the ideal setting of Kandooma's Sunset Bar and the West Beach with a maximum of 100 guests. Tex will be available to personally sign his CDs and pose for a professional photo after the show as a memento of this unique event. Not forgetting that you have easy access to Kandooma Right out the front, you will also have access to surf transfers to 6 nearby breaks like Tucky, Joe's and Riptides (Twice daily). Tex Perkins has shown us many faces over his diverse 30 year musical journey. Front man for the evocative soundscapes of The Cruel Sea and the hard edged pub rock of The Beasts of Bourbon, collaborator on the Tex, Don and Charlie outings, and compadre to Tim Rogers on the TnT project and more recently fronting the rock band The Ape.
