

Samuel and Eli: Read the story of Samuel and Eli out loud with a Children's Bible or book. Talk about the story with the children.

Find templates online of a little boy and a man from the Bible. Cut them out and let the children color them and glue them to a straw.

Make a base out of brown construction paper. Then make a rectangle bed, one small and one larger for each character.

Cut out two blankets that are smaller than the bed.
Put the straw characters in between the blanket and the bed.

Put the strip of what Samuel says to God finally.

Samuel comes out of the bed to go to Eli and tells him he has heard him call him.
Finally, he tells God that he hears him call him.
