

Heather got another chance!

Thanks to blood donors like you, Heather Cochrane, age 9, got another chance at life. Just two years ago, Heather was involved in a motorcycle accident which left her severely burned over 80 percent of her body. The units of blood she received helped her heal while she recovered at the Hillcrest Burn Center.

Photo by Jim Wolfe

American Red Cross

Blood Services, Oklahoma Region