Butterfield Gourmet Menu for January 26-30, 2015

Salad: Pesto Pasta – this salad just feels right this week and has plenty of good-for-you ingredients like cannellini beans, arugula and pine nuts. I'm making it with a healthier pasta too. $20 serves 2-3. GF avail

Soup: Creamy Mushroom & Parmesan – pretty sure I've mentioned my love of soup! Although I call it creamy, there's no cream in the soup...I just add a little crème fraiche on top to finish! $20/quart. GF, V

Pot Pie: NEW! Chicken-Bacon Top-Crust Pot Pie – stepping out of my flaky, double crust pie zone and it's also not round! This hearty, yummy business comes in a deep casserole dish with flaky pastry crust on the top only. Please try it and let me know what you think! $30/casserole.

Entrée: Italian Meat Loaf with Spaghetti – this is my crave for the week! I detested my mother's meatloaf growing up but now that I control what goes in this delicious hunk of meat, I actually crave it, especially the leftover meatloaf sandwiches! I love this version because it is essentially a giant meatball that is sliced and served over spaghetti. $40 serves 6. GF avail

Quiche: Green Chile Cheese – not the crustless soufflé I made last year, just a delicious, savory egg pie that makes a perfect meatless dinner. $20/pie. V

Dessert: Chocolate Fudge Cake – single-layer, topped with ganache... I have made it over the years whenever my family needed a simply delicious, special dessert. It is absolutely perfect served with vanilla ice cream or alone with a few raspberries. $20/cake

Bonus Bread: Focaccia – herbed and simple, buy any main course item and get a bag (6-8 pieces) of bread for $5.
