

THE PASSION MAKER

IDENTIFY & COMMIT TO YOUR TRUE LIFE
PURPOSE IN 10 MINUTES OR LESS

THE PASSION MAKER TEST: 10 MINUTES TO DISCOVERING YOUR TRUE LIFE PURPOSE

Aligning your motivation with your purpose, and the good of all people.

This is for the people who are committed to make the world a better place. Committed to make a difference, live their truth, and maybe go down in history, one way or another...

The questions are simple, and straightforward. Whether you do it or not is really up to you. Like everything in life, when it comes down to it, it's up to you to make it happen (with a little help from Spirit).

When you're aligned with your mission, and you're feeling good about your work, your life, and your circumstances (whatever they may be!) the universal energy flow is free to rush in and do its work. It feels really good.

When your closed off, compressed, and tight about your life, you close off the flow to and from the universe, and you suffer; your loved ones suffer; your finances suffer; your heart suffers.

Wherever you are in the game, and in this moment, take some time to breathe and slow down, right now...

Take a moment to allow the flow of the universe to expand a little in you, as you loosen those tight clamps on your heart and spirit; crimps that are closing off the flow of energy, the oxygen that your spirit needs to survive and thrive.

You are a magical, beautiful, powerful being. I know you know that in your deepest heart. It's time to awaken fully to the power you have within, and make it happen. You may have gone through this kind of process 100 times, or it may be your first, but no matter, the time is now to start anew!

Now is the time to take that massive giant leap, and plunge into the greatness that you are, and the power that you truly wield from within. Time to embrace "beginner's mind", time to let go of the past, and time to embrace your beautiful, powerful, emboldened future. Are you ready to take the plunge? Let's make it happen...!

With the following 10 questions, you're encouraged to just write what comes into your mind, without thinking much, or trying to reason. Just try and get in a state of flow, and don't spend too much time going over each question. After all, you've got work to do, right? You can always go back and spend some more time polishing and reflecting on these things, as they will be highly useful in your quest to live a good life, with great meaning, purpose and prosperity...

THE 10 PASSION MAKER QUESTIONS:

1. What do you believe you were put on this earth to do? (Just write the first thing that comes to mind, then you can elaborate for a few sentences if you wish...)

2. Why is this important?

3. What are some of your top favorite things to do, that you just can't get enough of? (Best if these involve some sort of active engagement with life.)

4. What do people consistently ask you for advice about and/or tell you you're really good at?

5. What would you absolutely LOVE to do for the next 5 years, without any question whatsoever?

6. What are you absolutely committed to in your life?

7. How would you picture your life and work in the next 6-12 months if you could wave a realistic magic wand, and see it all in place?

8. What's stopping you or blocking you from getting there now?

9. What are you committed to doing to turn it around and make it happen?

10. If you were handed the opportunity right now to turn your life around, create a foundation for true financial freedom, and make your dream happen starting today - would you go for it, or maybe hesitate until the opportunity was gone...?

OK, are you more clear on your purpose now? Right it again here now, without looking back over your answers!:

I believe in you! Now it's up to you to make the decision in yourself to do whatever it takes to make it happen. The world needs you my friend!

Final Question: What if I told you I have a plan to get you started on that road, that only takes about 1/2 hour to go through and is totally FREE - would you take the opportunity then?

I hope that was a no-brainer for you, because I just so happen to have such a program...it's called 5 Steps to Freedom (and it's totally free). The link is below, and I wish you great success, wisdom and joy in your life and work.

Try and remember this:

When you make that commitment in yourself it takes a real firmness of purpose, and continued perseverance to keep the dream alive. It also takes some support! You're not alone though...!

Millions of people around the world are going through the same thing right now, trying to figure out how to really make it happen for themselves, for their mission, and for their life's work. Some of them will be successful, and some won't. Some will do it with my guidance, and some will not. It really makes no difference to me how you do it - what matters is that you make it happen! The world needs more of us to step up and lead, lead from our true power, and change the world from within ourselves.

In 5 Steps to Freedom, you will receive the basic foundation and knowledge you need to turn your life around, take your dream business or career into your own hands, and start to live the life of your dreams.

Freedom cannot be bought, it must be earned, and this is the best way I know of to begin teaching you the fundamental principles you will need to know, to set up your dream business, get the clients and customers you need, and set yourself on the road to personal and financial freedom.

Whether you choose to take the 5 Steps or not, I wish you the very best in your endeavors, and I wholeheartedly support you in your mission to make our world a better place, starting from within you.

Whatever you choose to do in your life, may you do it from your heart and soul, and may you do it from a place of effortless peace, truth and great joy.

Life is short -- let's make it happen!

With Love,
Satya Colombo
