Sarah Champion enjoys a Christmas dinner at Shiloh Rotherham

Sarah Champion, the Member of Parliament for Rotherham, has shown her continued support this Christmas to a local charity which offers a pathway to adults in need.

Sarah enjoyed Christmas dinner at Shiloh Rotherham with service users. She even managed to get in on the act herself and had a go at carving the turkey for the meals (picture attached).

Sarah spent time with both volunteers and those who have received help from the charity.

Shiloh serve thousands of free meals every year to local adults in need and also provide facilities including washing, showering and laundry. Sarah has supported their work since becoming Rotherham's MP in 2012.

After enjoying her meal, Sarah commented:

"The work done by Shiloh in Rotherham is amazing and I'm proud to support their cause in any way I can. It's important that there is something like this available for those in need and after talking to people today, I can see just how much this charity is needed by our community."

"I'd like to thank the people who volunteer at Shiloh for all their hard work throughout the year to make this service the success that it has become."

"The need for homeless shelters, food banks and services like Shiloh has increased enormously in the last few years. Whilst I'm hugely grateful to the volunteers and charities running them, I'm also deeply saddened that in the UK we need them at all."
