Sarah Champion
Member of Parliament for Rotherham

Immediate release
8 January 2015

Sarah Champion launches her new Facebook page

Sarah Champion, Member of Parliament for Rotherham, has added another way for her constituents to keep in touch with the work she is doing both in Rotherham and in Parliament.

Sarah has today officially launched her Facebook page – www.facebook.com/sarahchampionmp - which will include regular updates of the work she is doing to promote the interests of Rotherham, videos of Sarah discussing the most pressing news and updates on events and meetings Sarah will be holding.

Sarah is no stranger to social media and is already an avid Twitter user, with almost 6 thousand followers (@sarahchampionMP).

The new Facebook page will give people the chance to see what their MP is doing on a regularly basis, as well as Sarah's views on some of the biggest news having an impact on constituents.

On the launch of the page, Sarah commented:

"I think it's vital that my constituents can see exactly the work that I'm doing for them both in Rotherham and in Parliament. The majority of the public now use social media in some way and my Facebook page is an ideal and relatively easy way for them to keep up to date.

"I'm already a big Twitter user and I love the fact that it allows me to be able to communicate with people quickly and easily. This Facebook page provides another opportunity for me to be able to do just that.

"There are already plenty of ways for my constituents to find out what their MP has been doing for them. My website, my Twitter feed and my regular newsletters are just some of those. I'm happy that I can now add Facebook to that list.

"I want to be able to reach people as much as possible and allow them to see the hard work I'm putting in for Rotherham and with this page I think I can."
