

[How To Save Water]

Water Saving Tips: In the Kitchen

Kitchen and food preparation, we spend much of our lives at home in the kitchen, the major hub of activity. Saving water in the kitchen will play a big part in reducing your water consumption at home. Read more to find out.

Water Saving Tips: Fix a Leak

Household water leaks waste more than 1 trillion gallons each year. Preventing water waste is crucial to ensuring sustainable use of our most precious resource and finding and fixing leaks is a key to ending waste.

Water Saving Tips: Food Choices

It takes water, sometimes a lot of it, to grow, process and transport our food. So, when you eat lower on the food chain, eat more whole foods and waste less food, you also save water. Learn about ways you can save the water in your food.

Water Saving Tips: In the Kitchen

Kitchen and food preparation, we spend much of our lives at home in the kitchen, the major hub of activity. Saving water in the kitchen will

Water Saving Tips: Outdoors

Our water supplies are limited. With more than half of our water used for lawn and

HOW BIG IS YOUR WATER FOOTPRINT?

CLICK enter

RELATED

National Vampire Awareness Day - Take Two!

Everything Old is New Again on Earth Day