

AUCTION SAMPLER

Labrador Brook Trout Adventure. A one-week fishing getaway to Labrador, Canada for two anglers. In Labrador, you'll find a true wilderness that forms a perfect backdrop for the angling adventures of your imagination. The boreal forest, tundra and seemingly endless waters are pure and unsullied. The fisheries hold treasures – fish that have disappeared from all but the most native and pristine environments. You'll have the chance to catch trophy brook trout in the remarkable Woods River wilderness. The package includes six fishing days and seven nights at Three Rivers Lodge's main camp fishing the Eagle River, Rick's Run and Victoria River upstream and the main Woods River downstream. Also includes two fly-outs on the river system for each angler. Accommodations in main camp are private guest cabins (double occupancy, with full private bathroom), and all meals are included. Valid for 2015 season, subject to availability. Donated by Three Rivers Lodge. Learn more at: www.trophylabrador.com.

“The Magic of Africa” - South African Photo Safari. Six-day, six-night safari for two in KwaZulu-Natal Province, South Africa, within Zulu Nyala Private Game Reserve. You'll enjoy one of South Africa's most diverse conservation regions, with wildlife including elephant, rhino, buffalo and leopard. It is a birder's paradise and for those that love plants, the trees are especially rewarding. Package includes accommodations at buyer's choice among the four-star Zulu Nyala Private Game Lodge, Heritage Safari Lodge, or Nyati/Ndlovu Lodge; delicious meals with an African flavor; and two photo safaris per day guided by knowledgeable professional rangers. Does not include airfares, transfers, and incidentals. Package must be used within two years, subject to availability. Donated by African Eyes Travel. Yellowstone backcountry adventure. Experience a once-in-a-lifetime Yellowstone wilderness adventure with this five day, four night backcountry horse pack trip for two in Yellowstone's Lamar River Valley. The trip takes place August 25-29, 2015, starting from the Soda Butte Trailhead. As you move away from the highway into Yellowstone backcountry, the Lamar River offers outstanding fishing with big deep pools and abundant, healthy size cutthroat trout. It is also a remarkable area in which to watch wolves, bear, and American bison interact in ways that those confined to their cars along the Park's roads never experience. Along with great fishing and remarkable scenery, Sunrise Pack Station also offers you experienced guides with great knowledge of the park's natural and human history – so beyond having assistance with the horses and local fishing knowledge, you'll also have the chance to learn about Yellowstone from fire ecology, to wolf reintroduction, the Nez Perce Indians who were native to this area. . Meals and camping gear are provided; to ensure safety, there is a 250 lb. weight limit. Donated by Sunrise Pack Station. Learn more at: <http://sunrisepackstation.com/>

The "Flattops 40" backcountry pack trip for two. You'll enjoy a four day, three night Flattops Wilderness fishing pack trip for two people, on the "Flattops 40 Ride". This is a horseback pack trip across the Flattops, covering 40 miles and stopping at three different camp sites, where you can fish spectacular high mountain lakes. Includes meals, horse, camp and guide. Donated by Ripple Creek Lodge. Learn more at: <http://www.ripplecreeklodge.com/>

Gold Medal fishing in the Gunnison Gorge. A three day trip for two anglers to fish in Colorado's Gunnison Gorge in the Black Canyon of the Gunnison River, August 3-5, 2015. Fish a Gold Medal fishery in the midst of a true wilderness setting, the river accessible only by foot and horseback. This package includes meals from lunch on day one through lunch on day three, group camping equipment and cot (you provide your own sleeping bag & fishing gear), transportation to and from the river, and guided fishing on one of Colorado's signature float trips. Donated by RIGS Adventure Co. One week fishing for two at Alagnak Lodge in the Bristol Bay watershed. You and a guest will enjoy a week of salmon and trout fishing in the legendary Bristol Bay watershed on the Alagnak River. The Alagnak Lodge is located just five miles from the mouth; the location on the tidal section of the river means that some of the best salmon fishing in Alaska is literally on the doorstep, with each tide bringing in another batch of chrome-bright salmon, fresh out of the ocean, and full of energy for a fight! Experienced guides will share their knowledge and techniques and take you to the best fishing spots. Along with outstanding fishing, dining at the lodge will be an experience to remember – with each day starting with a full cooked breakfast, a return to the lodge for hot lunch, and hearty dinners such as prime rib and blackened salmon, steak, halibut; all meals accompanied by freshly baked bread and delicious desserts. Wine is served with dinner. This package includes flight transfers by float plane between King Salmon and the lodge, your lodging, all meals, guided fishing each day, and processing and packaging of your salmon to take home. Can be used for any week between July 4 and August 29 during the 2015 summer season; subject to availability, so call soon to reserve your dates. Donated by Alagnak Lodge.
