11:30 - Abby Witmer

Today, the great Feast of All Saints, which is always a Holy Day in the United States, falls on a Sunday, making it very special indeed. We are always filled with joy when celebrating and singing of those who have run the race, fought the good fight, and are now dwelling with the Lord in heaven. Not only those whom the Church has declared are definitely in heaven by the process of beatification and canonization, but those of our loved ones who have passed, and all the people throughout the world who have gone to God in the state of sanctifying grace. We sing of them also.

Today at 2:00 is our parish celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation. Our young people have studied and worked very hard to reach this day and we congratulate them and pray for them, that they may always live their faith, the Faith of the Catholic Church. The Choir is not singing at 11:30 Mass today, because they are leading the congregation in song, and singing special music at the Confirmation Mass. Once again, we say congratulations to all of our Confirmandi!

CD highlighted: "The Supper of the Lamb" by Scott Hahn. Based on his best-selling book, Dr. Hahn reveals the early Christians' key to understanding the Mass: the Book of Revelation. With its bizarre imagery, mystic visions of Heaven, and end-times prophecies, it mirrors the sacrifice and celebration of the Holy Eucharist. See the Mass with new eyes, pray the Liturgy with a renewed heart, and enter into the Mass more fully and enthusiastically!

Gluten Free People

Please go to the Celebrant for Holy Communion. He has gluten free Hosts. Be sure to tell him when you get to him.
