The readings this weekend underline the assuredness with which we can trust in the Lord's goodness and boundless love for His people. We sing of this love and of our unity in worship and sharing. The Gospel teaches that we are all one in Christ. Jesus did not intend for there to be the divisions within Christianity that now exist and persist. He wanted all to be one in Him and in the Church He founded. Human weakness has caused the historical abuses within the Church, not in dogma but in practice and leadership. Various schisms and breaks within Christianity have resulted in the hundreds, indeed thousands of fractures and factions or denominations that we see today. We must pray that one day the Holy Spirit will guide humankind to a unity which will once again bring the Church of Jesus Christ into that which is "one, holy, catholic and apostolic, the marks of the true church.

This weekend we celebrate, especially at the 9:00 Mass, Catholic Schools Week, honoring our fine schools, teachers, and students, who strive toward the highest academic standards while upholding the highest spiritual values.

Young Adult Ministry

(for anyone in their twenties and thirties)

yamatholycrosschurch.wordpress.com ~ taylor@holycrossdewitt.org

This early January, six college-age folks headed to a service retreat at Nazareth Farm, a Catholic Community in rural West Virginia. They spent the week doing home repairs for low-income families, learning about Catholic Social Teaching, and sharing and growing in their faith with college students from SUNY Oswego and Iona College. They had an amazing time and are already looking forward to heading back there as soon as they can! If you'd like to be a chaperone or a student on future trips or would like to take your family or a group of adults, email Taylor at taylorhorn@gmail.com to find out more information.

Jennings schedules donations of baked goods for dessert. We wish to express our appreciation for the continuous dedication of all the volunteers, individuals and families, who prepare meals, bake, or serve in this important ministry! The Center could really use a few volunteers, to help the kids with reading, math, improving their English, and just being there as a role model or mentor. The Butternut Center is a drop-in center for kids and teens, most of whom are immigrants, who live on the Northside. The hours are 4-8 pm. Volunteers can set their own schedule. An hour or two a week would be a big help. I would be glad to take anyone interested over to check it out. For more info or to volunteer contact John Gamage: john.c.gamage@gmail.com or Beth (contact info above).
