

Holy Cross Church ~ DeWitt, New York

August 27, 2014

My name is Matt Lyons, I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Syracuse. I will be staying at Holy Cross this coming year for my pastoral year. I entered the seminary in the fall of 2010 at Theological College at the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. I am originally from Endicott, NY & went to St. Joseph's church in the same town. I graduated from Maine-Endwell High School in 2006 and from Binghamton University's School of Management in the spring of 2010 with a B.S. in management with a concentration in finance. I spent the past few summers in various churches in the diocese including my home parish of St. Joseph's in Endicott, Our Lady of Lourdes in Utica & St. Paul's in Rome. I look forward to working with you all at Holy Cross! Please keep me in your prayers during the coming year.

*In Christ,
Matt*

Welcome Matt Lyons!

We are excited that Matt Lyons, a seminarian for the Diocese of Syracuse will be with us at Holy Cross This next school year.

Today's Gospel was also proclaimed a few weeks ago for the Feast of Sts. Peter & Paul. PLEASE remember to sing with the voice God gave you. Go ahead, jump into the pool, PICK UP THAT HYMNAL AND GIVE IT YOUR BEST SHOT! PLEASE! If you love to sing, consider joining the Adult Choir or one of the other Choirs. Stop by the Choir Room or the Choir Loft or call 315-446-0473 x38 and leave a message.

Watch here for the date when the BRASS QUINTET, an ensemble of professional musicians including Andrew Wiley, Holy Cross's principal trumpet player and Josh Nightingale, who often plays here, will return to play at weekend Masses on a future Sunday. They were here in January and many parishioners enjoyed them and asked to have them return. They are also planning to play a concert here for one of our Sunday afternoon series, hopefully sometime in October.
